Music in the air

July seems to be the month for all things "staged." Around every corner there seems to be a singer, musical, play, or performance ready to grab our attention. Headlining the list of big names this month is LeAnn Rimes, performing at Soboba Casino on July 16. If you haven't nabbed your tickets yet, you better hurry ... they're selling out fast.

Other performances taking place on stages this month include Urban Gospel's Musical Entertainment, "Laughter on the 23rd Floor" at the Murrieta Repertory Theater, "Come Back To The Five and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean" at the Grove, "Ain't Misbehavin'" at the Candlelight Pavilion, and "The Music Man" at the Big Bear Performing Arts Center. This looks like a great month for going out and seeing a show or performance.

If after all the shows you need a little time in the sun, it's "all aboard" the Beach Train for a convenient and fun way to transport yourself to the surf and sand.

You'll find articles on all of these events inside this month's IER. As always, free and here to serve you a good time.

Beach trains now in service

With gas prices at record highs and parking costs at Southern California's beaches continuing to rise, inland residents will be eager to board the Riverside County Transportation Commission's (RCTC) Beach Trains. These special Metrolink charter trains travel toward beaches in San Juan Capistrano, San Clemente and Oceanside from train stations in Rialto, San Bernardino, Riverside and Corona.

Service began this year on June 26 and is offered every Saturday and Sunday through August 22. Service will not be available on the July 4th Independence Holiday weekend, and additional trains will run on Sept. 18, Sept. 25, Oct. 2 and Oct. 3. The round-trip fare is $16 for adults and $11 for kids under 16.

"This is a great way of taking cars off of the 91 Freeway on the weekends," said RCTC Executive Director Eric Haley. "More importantly, once people take the train to the beach and enjoy it, they often consider taking it to work as well."

This year, RCTC continues a number of effective marketing efforts to increase interest in the Beach Train. RCTC has joined a number of businesses in marketing partnerships to encourage Beach Train ridership. The effort has included internet banner ads and newspaper advertising. RCTC has also added a promotion on every Beach Train trip on weekends where there are no special events at the beach cities. For example, riders on the July 10 train will be entered into a contest for a Sunday brunch for two at the Thornton Winery in Temecula. This year, the Beach Train will also stop at additional stations in Orange County including Irvine and Laguna Niguel. The added stops will not change the overall schedule for the train.

"There is an added excitement and interest in the Beach Train this year," said Haley. "It makes sense because it is convenient, affordable, and a lot of fun."

Tickets must be purchased in advance and are limited on a number of days that serve major attractions such as the Seafest & Chowder Festival in October and the Ocean Festival in July. More information on the Beach Train is available at (909) 787-7938 or at www.takeethebeachtrain.com.

Rimes time

LeAnn Rimes performs at Soboba Casino

LeAnn Rimes has been impressing audiences even before she could spell "audience." Before LeAnn Rimes was two years old, she was belting out songs like "You Are My Sunshine" and "Getting To Know You." By age five, she told her parents that she wanted to pursue a life in show business.

This talented singer brings her gifts to Soboba Casino on July 16.

Rimes made her stage debut in a Dallas musical production of "A Christmas Carol" and soon after the preteen powerhouse was singing "The Star Spangled Banner" at Dallas Cowboy games and opening for Randy Travis. She recorded her first album when she was eleven, "All That," which was released on a small, independent label. The fateful LP featured an early version of what would become her signature song, "Blue." Though the album was only available in local Dallas stores, the record created enough music industry buzz to attract the attention of Curb Records president Mike Curb. In 1996, LeAnn Rimes recorded and released her remarkable major label debut album, Blue.

Rimes' musical career has only risen higher since, with forays into acting as well.

Performance karting

This isn't your daddy's go-kart

Southern Californians love their cars, and our need for speed can sometimes get us in trouble. Short of challenging the law, however, the only way to satisfy this primal urge was to become a professional race-car driver, something a little out of the average person's league.

The problem has been solved with go-karts. Before you think about that old putt-putt you cobbled together when you were ten-years old, think again. Today's go-karts are a professional affair, a high-performance science that is Formula One racing in miniature.

So what is high performance karting? Most people have driven go-karts at their local amusement park. Modern day racing karts are nothing like the concession go-karts at a fun center, however. Go-karts originated in Southern California

Moran Raceway is located in Beaumont at 930 West Fourth Street, Beaumont, CA. 92223 • (909) 522-9302.

DIRECTIONS TO THE TRACK

Coming from the west: Take either the Interstate 10 or 60 east-bound past San Bernardino or Riverside approximately 23 miles. Exit the first sign that says Beaumont (not Beaumont Ave.). This exit puts you on 6th Street, continue approximately 1/4 mile to the first stop sign and turn right on California. Proceed approximately 1/8th mile south and turn right on 4th Street (just past railroad tracks). Head west on 4th Street for approximately 3/4 mile and turn right into Moran Raceway.

Coming from the east: Take the Interstate 10 west and exit Beaumont Ave. and turn left. Proceed south-bound approximately 1/2 mile to 1st Street and turn right. Go 1 block to California Street and turn right, proceed north 1/8th mile to 4th Street and turn left. Head approximately 3/4 mile to Moran Raceway and we are on the right hand side of the road.

about a half century ago. Since then karts have evolved into highly sophisticated, purpose built race machines that are now driven and raced across the world.

Karts are capable of performing like an Indy or Formula One car, only at a smaller scale. Karting is the most affordable way to experience the thrill of driving a high performance racing vehicle. Karts can pull over 2 lateral g-forces in a corner and handle better than any road car on the market. Modern day karts accelerate, brake, and corner in phenomenal fashion.

Kart racing is considered to be the "minor league" of Nascar, F-1, and Indy Car race series. In fact, most professional race car drivers still drive their karts to keep their skills sharp.

Karting is a great family sport with an excellent safety record and karts are now designed for all ages and genders.

Moran Raceway was built and designed by professional race car drivers,

High performance go-karting at Moran Raceway is thrilling enough to attract adults, but safe enough for children.

'Laughter' in Murrieta

Venture to Neil Simons '23rd Floor'

On Saturday, February 25, 1950, NBC introduced a brand new comedy show, which would revolutionize the entertainment industry. It was called "Your Show of Shows," a 90-minute comedy program conceived by Sid Caesar, which starred Caesar, Imogene Coca, Carl Reiner and Howard Morris in a variety of different sketches and comical skits.

"Your Show of Shows" was a television benchmark. Not only did it remain one of the highest rated programs of its day, it also laid the groundwork for the contemporary sketch comedy, and such programs as In Living Color, Mad TV, and Saturday Night Live. But perhaps the greatest success story of the show wasn't what occurred on screen, rather, the success it enjoyed off screen.

"Your Show of Shows" featured one of the most talented writing teams in the entertainment industry, and was the starting point for such renowned writers as Mel Brooks, Woody Allen, Larry Gelbart, Mel Tolkin, and Neil Simon.

Set in 1953, the play takes place in the writing studio of The Max Prince Show, located on the 23rd floor of the NBC tower. The play recreates the mayhem, neuroses, non-stop gags and constant one-upmanship of this team of brilliantly funny comedy writers, as they write television's number one variety show. Led by the show's star, the neurotic, irrational and oddly lovable Max Prince, they face the threat of rising McCarthyism and pressuring

NBC executives with the only weapon they have, humor.

Hailed as Neil Simon's "flat-out funniest play in years" (Dennis Cunningham-CBS TV), Laughter on the 23rd Floor is one of Simon's personal favorites, and now the Inland Valley can enjoy this comical masterpiece as it comes to Murrieta.

On Friday, July 9th, the award-winning Murrieta Repertory Theatre is presenting Laughter on the 23rd Floor for three weeks, from July 9th through the 25th. Please note, the show does contain adult language and is not suitable for younger viewers.

Murrieta Repertory Theatre was founded in January 2001 by local and award-winning artists, and is the first professional theatre company in the Temecula-Valley. As a registered 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization, Murrieta Repertory Theatre (MRT) is dedicated to enhancing the culture and quality of local communities; by bringing the greatest works of literature alive on stage.

Music from the spirit

Urban Gospel Series promotes positive entertainment

For families looking for uplifting enjoyment, the Riverside Convention Center will host three consecutive nights of musical entertainment with a positive message. Held nightly from July 14 - 16 during the Urban Gospel Industry (UGI) Awards & Conference, the concerts will showcase the music and the message of urban gospel artists and groups.

Scheduled to headline during the concert series are nationally known artists such as San Diego based hip hop crew Sackcloth Fashion, Sony Music's contemporary gospel group Ramiyah, Christian hip hop artist and Youth Pastor Fros'T, Jazz In The Spirit founder and saxophonist Ron Brown, vocalist and former "Girlfriends" co-star Cee Cee Michaela, and veteran Christian hip hop group Idol King.

Sponsored by the Urban Gospel Alliance (UGA), a national organization that brings together all facets of urban gospel music under one umbrella, the free concert series is a way to display to the local community how gospel music has transformed over the years. With styles that appeal to youngsters, teens, and grown-ups, the series will bring family entertainment to the Inland Empire.

Each night features a new artist showcase at 7pm and a late-night showcase at 10pm. The new artist showcases will highlight some of the brightest up-and-coming artists from around the country in all urban music types, from hip-hop to contemporary to spoken word to jazz. Late-night showcases are focused on a specific genre of music and will highlight the talents of both new and seasoned artists alike.

While there are a variety of musical styles, the one thing that all the performers will have in common is a passion to use music to transform lives. "The unique factor of urban gospel artists is the message, not the beats, the music, or the production quality," Curtis Germany, founder and national director of UGA, said.

"The various styles of music are just a vehicle - the artists that we are showcasing are ones that have protected the integrity of the message that has been proclaimed to our forefathers and beyond," Germany said. And protecting the integrity of the message is primarily what the daily sessions of the UGI Awards & Conference is all about.

Seeking to educate conference participants on both the business and ministry of urban gospel music, UGA has laid out three full days of panels and workshops that provide information, networking, and accountability. Bringing in artists, industry personnel, and media from all across the country and from as far away as Nigeria, the conference is the first of its kind to unify these specific styles of gospel music.

For more information on the UGI Awards & Conference and to see a detailed concert schedule, go online to www.urbandgospelalliance.com. R

Swingin' to 'Misbehavin''

The 'greatest musical revue of them all' returns to the Candlelight

A small-time club act in the late '70s quickly caught on and has become one of America's most beloved musical revues. Ain't Misbehavin' pays joyous tribute to the talents of the legendary Fats Waller. From sassy to sultry, this electrifying celebration of song and dance features such favorites as "The Joint is Jumpin'," "Honeysuckle Rose," "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," and "T'Ain't Nobody's Biz-ness If I Do."

Experience the heart and soul of 20's and 30's Harlem where the onset of swing joined ranks with the rhythms of ragtime and the passions of jazz, creating an explosive musical movement.

The New York Times has called Ain't Misbehavin' "a funny, devastatingly beautiful, heart-stopping show." Ain't Misbehavin' opened as a limited-run cabaret act at the Manhattan Theatre Club on February 8, 1978, but was so well received that it soon moved to the Longacre Theatre on Broadway. The show reproduced the atmosphere of a Harlem nightclub in the 1930's. The show ran in New York for 1604 performances.

In 1998 Ain't Misbehavin' played at the Candlelight Pavilion, and the audiences couldn't get enough of the cast's performance of "Keepin' Out of Mischief Now," "I've Got a Feelin'," and "I'm Fallin'." That cast lit up the stage at the Candlelight Pavilion with the swing, ragtime and jazz of the 20's and 30's.

With one exception, the cast from 1998 is back by popular demand after national and international tours of their own. R

'Jimmy Dean' takes the stage

'Come Back to the 5 & Dime' at the Grove

Meet a small group of devoted James Dean fans as they relive old days and settle old scores. By the end of "Come Back to the 5 and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean," audiences will have been treated to a deliciously stormy evening of exposed secrets and self-deceptions.

The Grove Theatre in Upland presents "Jimmy Dean," by playwright Ed Graczyk, who has said of the play, "...Jimmy Dean' can only be described as the result of my own observations and frustrations with progress that ignores a past; the lack of personalization and pride and the recurring need of people to build facades to conceal the truths of their lives. It is the facade that makes abnormal people seem normal and the sad people seem happy. A personal observation which I feel makes the people I write about, colorful, theatrical, but most of all, honest."

The Grove production stars Jean

Alana Stewart, Rebecca Holden and Jean Carol star in the Grove production of "Come Back to the 5 and Dime, Jimmy Dean, Jimmy Dean."

The IE's big apple

Oaktree Village offers the best of apple goodness

By Tom Pigeon

The Inland Empire's agricultural heritage usually focuses on citrus, but there is another small round fruit it's also famous for: apples. There's probably no better place to get your apple fill than at Oaktree Village in Oak Glen, the area's apple headquarters.

The Village is a 14-acre family entertainment park centered in the historic apple ranching community. Oak Glen is within an hour of most areas of the Inland Empire, making an excellent location for a quick family adventure.

The year's major festivals take place from April through December, during apple season. However, Oaktree Village also operates year-round.

Aside from a collection of restaurants serving lunch, dinner and, of course, apple pie, the Village offers a wide range of family entertainment. Attractions include: music, craft fairs, fishing contests, petting farm, train rides, animal park and reptile cave, gold & mineral panning, pony rides, goat milking animal shows, a jumper, and face painting, plus shops and restaurants.

If you're taking little ones with you, they'll likely especially enjoy the Animal Park, which hosts more than 100 animals including pigs, goats, sheep, Asian pheasants, zebus, swans, peacocks, llamas, and more. New residents include an adorable set of Singing Dogs from New Guinea.

The Mountain Town Museum is another child-pleaser. Housed inside a 10,000 sq. ft. building, the museum is a re-creation of a mountain. A cave-like entrance opens up displays of animals from around the world, as well as the newly added Live Exotic Animal Exhibit.

With free general admission, free parking, and attractions in the $3 range, Oaktree Village is a joy for adventure-seeking children and budget-conscious parents alike.

Oaktree Village is open every day throughout the year, except Thanksgiving and Christmas, from 10am to 5pm. All shops and restaurants are open from 10am to 5pm. Parking is free. The Animal Park costs $3 per person, and includes the Petting Farm and Trout Ponds (there is a separate fee to fish). The Mountain Town Museum and Reptile Cave cost $3 per person.

Birthday Bash

Something big is going on at Augustine Casino

It's Big," the advertising states. "Augustine Casino's Big! Big! Big! Birthday Blowout with promotional cash giveaways going on every day." The management folks at Augustine spend a lot of time listening to their customers, and the customers tell them they love promotions.

In addition to the month-long birthday celebration, which happens in July, Augustine will add a money chamber into the promotional mix, calling it "Cool Summer Breeze." Randomly selected players will get to spend time in the wind machine grabbing all the cash they can carry.

"We thrive on fun and excitement," says Bobby Smith, Augustine's Marketing Director. "And it's really fun and exciting for our guests to spend a little time grabbing all of the money they can hang on to."

"We've also continued our popular 'Dash for Cash' slot tournament," says Smith. This promotion is billed as, "The one and only California casino with a slot tournament every day."

Augustine is kicking off its birthday celebration as a sponsor of the 8th Annual 4th of July Fireworks Festival in the city of Indio.

"The locals support Augustine Casino," says Smith. "Helping support local events like this is our way of giving back to the community. We're also big at giving value to our locals. That's why you see so many coming into Café 54 for breakfast, lunch and dinner savoring Chef Jaime Angarita's culinary delights which are served 24/7."

In addition to the full service bar and restaurant, Augustine also serves on the patio where guests can view their favorite sports events on big screen television sets. If you're looking for fun and excitement, you'll want to visit Augustine during their month-long birthday celebration in July.

Amazing art and atmosphere at the 2004 Sawdust Art Festival

The Sawdust Art Festival will open its doors to greet the public on July 2 for its 38th annual summer show. The highlight of the Sawdust Art Festival has always been its exhibitors and the amazing original art they create. Over the years, millions of patrons have strolled the beautiful 3-acre outdoor setting, finding new and enchanting artwork around every turn of the sawdust-covered paths.

With 202 exhibitors creating everything from ceramics to original photography to water-color paintings, there is sure to be something to catch every visitor's eye. Shopping at the Sawdust brings patrons in direct contact with the artists who create the items, allowing a rare experience in today's mass-produced world.

Patrons can watch the exhibitors as they demonstrate their art in either their booths or in designated demonstration areas around the festival. With prices ranging from just a few dollars up into the thousands for fine jewelry or commissioned sculpture, there is something to please everyone and every pocketbook.

The glass-blowing demonstrations (hourly every day) always draw a crowd as the Sawdust has one of the few glass kilns on public view in the country. Watching a gather of 2000 degree molten glass be blown and spun into a vase or bowl is a breath-taking experience that entralls visitors both young and old.

Patrons are invited to get their hands dirty at the Ceramics Booth, where the Sawdust offers complimentary instruction at the potter's wheel. After patrons have experienced the ups and downs (literally) of the wheel, they can really appreciate the skills possessed by the Sawdust's ceramic artists and the patience and talent that goes into hand-creating ceramic items.

The Sawdust Art Festival was founded in 1966 as a reaction against stuffy, boring art shows. The iconoclastic spirit of its founders — three of whom, photographer John Atkinson, and jewelers Nikki Grant and Irene Suess, still exhibit — permeates the show.

The 2004 Sawdust Art Festival runs from July 2 through September 5 from 10am to 10pm every day. Admission prices are $6.50 for an adult one-day pass, $5.50 for seniors (65 and up), $2 for children 6 – 12 and free for children 5 and under. Season Passes are available for $12.50, Annual Passes are $16 and include unlimited entries to both the summer Sawdust and the Winter Fantasy. For more information, visit sawdustartfestival.org or call 949-494-3030. The Sawdust Art Festival is a non-profit organization, dedicated to educating the public about the art created in the community of Laguna Beach.

Latin Music Festival seeks vendors

The 2004 Latin Music Festival scheduled for Saturday, September 18, at the beautiful Arrowhead Credit Union Park in San Bernardino is currently seeking vendors to participate.

The Festival is a full day event with a continuous eight-hour music concert on the main stage. Doors open at 3pm and the festival ends at 11 pm. Admission is $25 for General and $40 for the Special Seating.

Vendor and marketing opportunities are now available for the festival. For information and vendor applications, go online to www.santospro.com or call (909) 653-7777.

There are 50 vendor spaces available for this festival. The festival is seeking businesses with food, clothing/wear, music memorabilia, music related items, and community outreach organizations. The 10 x 10 space, which includes electricity at no additional cost, is $230.

The Route 66 celebration runs concurrently and only two blocks away. Last year's estimate of 395,000 attendees will probably be equaled or surpassed this year, event organizers said.

The Festival is also making available advertising space in the program, with prices ranging from $250 to $750.

Musical talent at the continuous concert includes: Jorge Santana, Malo, Chico/The Village Callers, The East LA Revue All-Star Band with Mickey Lespron, Cauldron, and the Best of Everything. The Master of Ceremony is Frankie Firme.

The Festival features two large dance floors, available to all.

The Fender Centre for the Performing Arts and The Latin Oldies Festival are conducting a raffle during the event, with an opportunity to win a Fender Stratocaster Electric Guitar, autographed by Jorge Santana. All proceeds will benefit the "Kids Rock Free" not for profit program.

La Opinion newspaper will sponsor a contest to meet Jorge Santana and Malo after the show.

The 'Toad' in Riverside

Downtown Riverside continues its rebirth as a restaurant mecca with the emergence of Toad in the Hole. The fine food and spirits destination celebrated its grand opening in mid-June at a gala that drew local connoisseurs, including Riverside Mayor Ron Loveridge.

Toad owner Diana Bradfield closed her original location in Moreno Valley to become a part of the Riverside downtown restaurant scene. The city has long sought to turn the historic area into a fine dining and shopping destination. Other restaurants, including Mario's Place, Downtown Supper Club and the Inland Heritage Wine Tasting and Bistro have also recently chosen downtown.

Toad in the Hole features traditional English prime rib and is equipped with a wine cellar and full bar. The restaurant also offers live entertainment through its piano bar, patio dining, banquet facilities, and catering. The Toad is open Monday through Thursday, 8am to 10pm, Friday and Saturday from 8am to 1am, and Sunday 8am to 10pm.

MAIL CORNER

Editor's Note: Since we began running testimonials from Curves members who have lost weight and wanted to talk about it, we've been receiving letters every month from other Curves members. So, we've decided to keep telling you their stories. Enjoy the inspiration!

Getting healthy

My name is Julie Vines Saiele. When I started at Curves 3 months ago, I could not wear any clothes other than muumuus. I could not walk without a cane. I could not find any shoes that were comfortable. I could not do my laundry, vacuum my floors or go grocery shopping. I needed help on all the machines at Curves. Now I can go around the machines 2 1/2 times without any help. I do my laundry, vacuuming, grocery shopping and can wear regular clothes and shoes. All without using a cane.

In just 3 months, Julie has lost 30 pounds, and 14 inches.

It's 'Kool Kid's Month' at the Air Museum

What's cooler than a pilot, at least to a kid? Not much, and this summer, the Palm Springs Air Museum wants your kids to "kool" during their Kool Kids Month events.

July 1-9: Happy Birthday America: Art contests all day for kids ages 5-8 and 9-12. Draw a birthday card to America at the Air Museum with materials supplied by the Museum. Winners will be selected July 14 and will receive prizes for each age group. Entries will be displayed throughout July in the Museum's Goose Gallery.

July 10-18: The Wild Goose Hunt: Ever see an 8,000 lb. goose? A Tiger with wings? Hear a Bear that purrs like a kitten? Kids can go on a Wild Goose Hunt all day at the Air Museum, solve the clues and receive a free gift at the Gift Shop. Contests for kids ages 5-8 and 9-12.

July 19-23: Freedom Week: Children will hear a unique story from a veteran, including a prisoner of war, veterans who flew in Navy and Army Air Corps planes, a B-17 pilot, a woman who served in WWII, and pilots who fly the Air Museum warbirds.

Rocky Moran Sr. and Jr. Both men have spent most of their lives in the racing world and karting was the beginning for both of them. "We have worked very hard to make Moran Raceway the finest kart track in America and we strive to make all of our karting programs and curriculums first class as well."

Designed by Rocky Sr. and Jr., Moran Raceway is America's only one mile "road course style" kart track. This revolutionary track design gives a driver the sensational feeling of driving a modern day Indy car course. With 17 different corners, 21 feet of elevation change and a 860 foot main straight-away, Moran Raceway has set a new standard for kart tracks around the world.

Moran Raceway hosts driving schools, group events and rentals on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays of every week from 9am to 1pm. Each program can be scheduled on any of these days and availability is based on a first come, first serve basis. All programs are half day, "Arrive and Drive," meaning they supply everything needed from karts to safety gear.

Moran Raceway's karts drive like an automatic car with no shifting involved. These karts can reach speeds up to 70 mph.

Moran offers schools and corporate events for ages 5 and up and kids are welcome to go through their classes with a parent or guardian. Moran Raceway offers an excellent staff of experienced instructors that create a fun and safe environment at all times.

Whether it's a birthday, bachelor party, employee appreciation day or just a fun day away from work, Moran Raceway group events are a fun alternative. They create a program where team building, competition, and excitement are the rule for the day.

Moran Raceway can accommodate parties of up to 25 participants from 9am-1pm and full day events can be arranged. Prices are $310 for Adults, $265 for ages 8-12, and $225 for ages 5-8, and $225 for drivers with their own kart (all ages).

Moran Raceway offers several driving school programs. "Techniques of Karting" is their most popular program, where the fundamentals of karting are taught in a simple format. Students will learn about racing line, apex's, braking, flags, safety, and much more. This course is great for beginner to experienced drivers and is available from 9am to 1pm. Prices are $320 for Adults, $275 for ages 8-12, and $225 for ages 5-8, and $225 for drivers with their own kart (all ages).

If you'd just like to rent a kart and start racing, Moran offers rates by the hour. The first hour is $135 and each additional 30 minutes is $45.

All programs, including rentals, need to be scheduled and booked at least 24 hours in advance and preferably one week in advance.

Moran Raceway is located in Beaumont in Riverside County. For more information, call (909) 522-9302 or go online at www.moranraceway.com.
