12 WAYS TO BEAT THE HEAT

Looking for an escape from the heat this summer? We've compiled a top twelve list of ways to keep cool that will give the sun a run.

ALPINE SLIDE

Big Bear

Alpine Slide at Magic Mountain is not only a great place for snow sliding during the winter, but a great retreat from the summer heat as well. The Big Bear attraction turns on the water during the summer months with a water slide, and offers other outdoor attractions such as mini-golf and go carts.

Alpine Slide also features an arcade, a snack bar, and is just a 1/4 mile from the Village shopping area. It is located on the boulevard in Big Bear Lake at 800 Wild Rose Lane. For more information, call (909) 866-4626 or go online to www.alpineslidebigbear.com.

ARROWHEAD QUEEN

Lake Arrowhead

Lake Arrowhead always makes a great escape, with picturesque mountains and shopping at the Village. For an extra summer treat, try the Arrowhead Queen boat tour of the Lake. "The Queen," an old-fashioned style paddle boat, can give you a new perspective on the community as you travel the Lake on a narrated tour. Private charters are also available. For more information, call (909) 336-6992.

BEACH TRAIN SUMMERLINK

If you thought the metrolink was just for people migrating to work, you're in for a surprise. Forget about parking hassles by taking the "Beach Train." Get to the beach in style with service that operates every Saturday and Sunday through Oct. 9 (except Labor Day Weekend, Sept. 3-4). The Beach Train has been taking sun-seekers to the beach for ten years, and every year they add more train dates.

They are officially changing the name this year to "Summerlink," adding more round trips and easier ticketing methods (with tickets available at the station's ticket machines).

For more information, go online to www.rctc.org or www.metrolinktrains.com, or call 951-222-7000 x2325 or 1-800-371-LINK.

Art-A-Fair in Laguna Beach.

The Capistrano Beach Resort, at Capistrano Beach, offers by-the-water convenience with luxury. From jacuzzi to complimentary breakfast, the resort will make your vacation memorable. The Resort is close to Dana Point Harbor and San Clemente. For more information, call (800) 446-2276 or go online to www.capistranobeachresort.com.

DAVEY'S LOCKER

Newport Beach

If your idea of ocean adventure is getting on the water, not just next to it, give Davey's Locker a call. From whale watching to fishing trips, the Locker is a good place to get your charter. Located at Newport Beach, Davey's Locker offers 1/2 and 3/4 and full day rentals.

For more information, call (949) 673-1434 or go online to www.daveyslocker.com.

FIESTA VILLAGE

Colton

Family fun is close to home in the Inland Empire with Fiesta Village. With an assortment of miniature golf, race cars, batting cages and rides, the Village is a good summer day trip for the kids. IDYLLWILD NATURE CENTER

Idyllwild

Get back to nature this summer by exploring the more than 200 acres of the Idyllwild Nature Center. The area is a hiker's dream with more than three miles of trails. The center features outdoor adventures, educational experiences, a museum and scheduled events.

The Idyllwild Nature Center is located at 25225 Hwy 243, 1 mile north of Idyllwild. For more information, call 951-

659-3850 or go online to www.idyllwildnaturecenter.net.

LAGUNA ART FESTIVALS

Laguna Beach

Art-A-Fair Festival

Rounding out the big art events in Laguna is the Art-A-Fair Festival, now in its 39th year. The 2005 show will see 18 new artists, never before in the show. "Our International status and offer to allow Artists to participate from anywhere in the world is what sets us apart from the other festivals in the canyon," Floyd O'Neil, VP Marketing Director for the Art-A-Fair Festival, said.

The Art-A-Fair Festival allows not only traditional art, but new and controversial mediums such as digital art (the only Laguna art festival that allows it). It also has no residency requirements for its artists. This gives the Art-A-Fair Festival a much different feel than the other Laguna Beach shows. The Art-A-Fair Festival is alive with artists demonstrating in their booths or at many of the festivals free daily workshops.

There is also some great dining at The Tivoli Too Restaurant right on the grounds of the Art-A-Fair. Tivoli Too is located in the rear center of the show, in a romantic European Plaza type setting. It's a peaceful spot with cascading waterfalls, blooming flowers and hillside views.

The 2005 Art-A-Fair Festival features the work of 125 fine artists and master crafts people. Experience the whimsical and functional fused glassworks by Andra Martin, the incredible ceramic work of artists Philippe Chambon and Scott Drake, the fun and vibrant paintings of cartoonist Robert Marble, the striking images of photographer David Linnig, and this year's poster contest winner, Elaine Hughes' striking oil paintings.

Art-A-Fair runs from July 1 through September 4, 2005, Sunday through Thursday from 10 am to 9 pm, Friday through Saturday 10 am to 10 PM. General Admission: Adults $6.00, 3.00 for Seniors, Children under 12 free with an adult. Each paid admission is a season pass for the show. Art-A-Fair is located at 777 Laguna Canyon Road in Laguna Beach. For more information call (949) 494-4514 or go online to www.art-a-fair.com.

Pageant of the Masters, where works of art are brought to life in staged displays.

Open July 3 through Sept. 1, the Festival of Arts is located at 650 Laguna Canyon Rd. in Laguna Beach. For more information, call (949) 494-1145, or go online at www.lagunafestivalofarts.org.

Sawdust Art Festival

Back in January, when near-record rains made summer seem like a miracle that would never happen, the behind-the-scenes staff at the Sawdust Art Festival in Laguna thought of a new way to show off the artistic talents of the Sawdust's exhibitors and help some Orange County non-profits at the same time.

Project Skimboard, in its final form, gave 36 Sawdust Art Festival artists the opportunity to turn an unfinished skimboard into a work of art. The boards will be exhibited at the Sawdust Art Festival for the month of July and then auctioned for charity on August 5.

Tex Haines, owner of Victoria Skimboards of Laguna Beach, loved the idea of Project Skimboard and hopped "on board" right away, donating the skim boards and signing Victoria Skimboards as a sponsor.

"At first we were hoping that 10 or 15 exhibitors would want boards, but each day another exhibitor would call and ask if he (or she) could participate," Rebecca Meekma, Project Skimboard co-director, said. "I was calling Victoria every few days, asking for more boards. Finally, we capped the number at 36."

The boards will be exhibited at the Sawdust Art Festival from opening day July 1 through Friday, August 5. The boards can be bid on silent-auction-style while they are being exhibited. On August 5 at 7pm, ten skimboards will be the stars of a live auction.

The Sawdust Art Festival features 209 artists and craftspeople exhibiting, selling and demonstrating their work in an enchanting 3-acre eucalyptus grove complete with waterfalls. The Sawdust also includes musical performances, complimentary art classes for children and adults along with three cafes and a saloon. Popular demonstrations such as glass blowing and pottery throwing are daily attractions.

Old Miners Days in Big Bear Valley

Big Bear Valley was the site of Southern California's largest gold rush, and the folks of Big Bear Valley preserve their historic 19th-century heritage with month-long traditions and events called Old Miners Days.

For 56 years the resort town has thrown this old-fashioned hoedown, and organizers promise this year's Old Miners Days to be bigger and better than ever.

JULY 15 – CALCUTTA DINNER

The Calcutta Dinner precedes the annual Chili Cook-Off and auctions the teams competing in the Chili Cook-Off. Proceeds from the night's auction are divided in thirds between Old Miners Days Association, the next day's winning chili team and the winning bidder who bought that team. Location: Murray's Saloon & Eatery, 672 Cottage Lane; Time: 5 p.m.; Dinner: $6 per person.

JULY 16 – CHILI COOK-OFF

Thousands gather at the Visitors' Center parking lot on Bartlett Road in Big Bear Village to sample spicy chilis and salsas prepared by cooks from throughout the Southwest. This is an International Chili Society sanctioned event. For entries, call Mark at 909.866.7076. Location: Bartlett Parking Lot, 630 Bartlett Road; Open: 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Admission: $5 per person; $4 with Old Miners Day button; Tasting kit: $1.

JULY 22 & 23 - COWBOY POETRY

Joe Bataan headlines evening of soul in Riverside

On August 13, Riverside's Municipal Auditorium will be filled with soulful nostalgia when Classic Soul Entertainment presents a bill loaded with soul artists from the late sixties and early seventies.

The evening's main attraction comes from New York City. Joe Bataan, who has been an icon of Latin soul for over thirty-five years, will perform his classic tunes such as "I Wish You Love," "Meztizo," "If I Were A King," and "Under The Street Lamp." Bataan's popularity among Chicano music lovers is still strong as he continues to perform with heart. A product of Spanish Harlem's tough streets, an 18 year-old Bataan chose music as his way out of the barrio. His music reflects the hard times and the good times of barrio life.

Other performers include:

- A veteran of South Los Angeles' group harmony, sound-balladeer Jimmy Conwell will bring you to tears with his songs of lost love and broken hearts.
- The Young Hearts made their way into the hearts of soul fans back in 1968 and 1969 with several charting singles including "Oh, I'll Never Be The Same," and "Sweet Soul Shaking."
- Frankie Karl and the Dreams will be on hand to perform a couple of songs including their hit "Don't Be Afraid (Do As I Say)."
- Also on the bill will be Tommy Turner and the Sessions and Rocky Padilla.

The Riverside Municipal Auditorium is at 3485 Mission Inn Ave. in Riverside. Doors open at 7:30pm, the show starts at 8pm. Tickets available at the Box Office and at ticketmaster.com. Admission is $61.50 (with a free drink and collector poster), $31.50, and $21.50. ☐

Looking for a little encouragement to get into summer beach shape? The following Curves ladies give their stories.

I had been gaining weight ever since I became a full-time home-maker five years ago. I saw the Curves ads for quite some time and thought "I should join," but never did. Sometime in January, 2005, I mentioned to my husband, Don, that I was thinking of giving Curves a try. When I opened my birthday card on January 20th, there was a year's membership to the Montclair Curves. On Jan. 21st, I came in and began my journey to a smaller me. Once I started eating right, along with my exercise workout, I saw great results. I am on the low-carb routine, which is a challenge because I love my breads, cereals and pastas. I found great recipes in the Curves book to help me with my journey. To new or struggling members my advice is to stick with it.

Mary Streett

Member of Curves in Montclair, 9505 Central Ave., Ste. F, (909) 472-3372.

Wow! What a difference a year makes. I am truly amazed at my weight loss success. My weight problem started with my pregnancies, gaining 60 pounds each time with my first two children and 38 pounds with my third child just two years ago. Over the years I would exercise, but not eat right, or vice versa. In January of 2003, I walked into Curves in Moreno Valley and what a blessing that was. After two months of eating right and one month of working out at Curves I had lost 14 inches and almost twice that amount in weight. Curves has been the best exercise program I have ever tried and stuck with consistently. I love the concept, convenience, and the atmosphere. We can all do it, ladies!

Musical 'Huck Finn' comes alive in San Bernardino

Junior University will bring Mark Twain's classic alive with the musical production The Adventures of Huck Finn. Following is a letter from Huck himself to his friend Tom Sawyer, describing the production.

Dear Tom, How are you! It's me, Huck Finn. Bet'cha didn't guess that one. Well, I have some news for you. Them nice people down there at Junior University is putting some music and some dance together and retelling my adventures down the Mississippi!

Can you believe that this is the third time they are doin' it! I guess I'm pretty popular right down there in that city of San Bernardino. I tried to get ol' Mr. Dixon to name the performance venue after the Duke and King, seein' how they liked to act n' all, but he said that too many people knew it by the Perris Hill Bowl and it would be confusin' folks. I don't wanna confuse nobody.

So I go to Ms. Patsy, who is Billy's wife, and ask her who is gonna put my show together. You know that she has been doin' these shows for forty-four years! My goodness, that's a long time Tom! She gets me all excited with the names she threw out. I mean, directin' it all is James Griffin and he is one of the best. I heard he has done some stuff professionally. I think he's even visited Hollywood before. Maybe we can go there one day Tom.

Then there's the talented Lisa Lyons. Tom, she has trained them college people to sing! You gotta be pretty smart to be doin' stuff like that now. I know that last time I talked to Mrs. Lyons, she said that the songs Mr. Dixon wrote were some of the best ever.

For dancin', they were able to get Nicole Robinson. I can't wait for you to meet her. She is gonna be doing the huge raise-your-roof gospel number "Open Up Those Pearly Gates."

I saw Mary Kintner's name down and I got me a big smile. There's something about Mary you gotta know. She is makin' the costumes as historically accurate as possible. There was somethin' down 'bout her using pre-Civil War costumes.

Brian Sandahl will be designin' the set. It is gonna be so great! It looks like some of them postcards the Widow Douglas has. The sets are all sepia tone like a bunch of picture frames. Each time there is a change in the frames, it is gonna help set another mood and take us to a different place. The best part is the Mississippi River. He is gonna have it runnin' through the set and it is gonna be a focal point for the whole show.

Roundin' out the team is Jeff Grande. He takes on big projects and he is good at makin' things. This year, he's gonna make a rustic raft glide across the stage like it's on real water, a funeral where it is actually gonna rain on stage, and a really starry night on the Mississippi.

After Ms. Patsy told me 'bout the staff, I asked her who was gonna be in it. She made me real excited because she said that there is gonna be around eighty people in this show! That's more people than my town Tom!

Well, I better be goin'. I got me some more adventure ahead before helpin' Junior University put on my story.

Take care, Huck Finn

Orange County Fair

OC Fair offers free admission for opening hour

To kick off the 2005 Orange County Fair, fair officials will offer free admission and parking for the first hour of Opening Day, Friday, July 8, from 10 to 11 a.m. The free, one-hour promotion, titled Play For Free, launches the beginning of an action-packed 21 days of Fair fun, from Friday, July 8, to Sunday, July 31, when the 113th annual OC Fair features the theme "It's Callin' You Out To Play" — the year of the avocado.

The Fair is closed on Mondays, July 11, 18 and 25.

Pacific Amphitheatre again will offer 21 nights of entertainment presented by the Orange County Market Place. Launching the 2005 Summer Concert Series on Friday, July 8, will be The B-52's. For the 2005 season, all seats on Friday and Saturday nights will be $19.99, which includes free Fair admission.

The Fair will again offer free entertainment at the Citizens Business Bank Arena.

Highlights include the return of the "Orange Crush" Demolition Derby, the Speedway Fair Derby, and bullriding, along with special performances by Carrot Top and latino comedian Julio Sabala.

The Fair would not be the Fair without its abundance of food, contests, exhibits, carnival rides and entertainment. Approximately 80 vendors offer a variety of food choices, including barbecued beef, turkey legs, corn dogs, cinnamon rolls, lemonade, and deep-fried Snickers and Twinkies. And there is always something new to try, such as a fried avocado.

This year's contests feature homemade beer, table-setting, cake decorating, floral arranging and baking to name just a few. There are also exhibits galore, such as the Floral Pavilion, Collectors Corner, Home and Hobbies, Visual Arts, and Gems & Minerals. Other popular Fair attractions are the All Alaskan Racing Pigs, glass-blowing in Crafters Village, hypnotist Mark Yuzeuk on Sun Stage, and the annual Junior Livestock Auction.

The Fair is located off the 405 and 55 freeways at 88 Fair Drive in Costa Mesa. For more information, visit www.ocfair.com or call (714) 708-FAIR (3247). □

Orange County Fair activities include bullriding, concerts, comedians, food, rides and more.

Fall in love with 'Ernest'

Riverside Community Players is currently in rehearsal for their upcoming production of Ernest in Love with book and lyrics by Anne Crosswell and a score composed by Lee Prockriss.

Ernest in Love is the musical adaptation of the hit play, The Importance of Being Earnest, by Oscar Wilde. The original play has been produced continuously since it opened at London's St. James Theatre in 1895. The work has been described as the funniest play in the English language.

The musical opened Off-Broadway in 1959 at the Gramercy Arts Theatre, before moving to the Cherry Lane Theatre where it ran for 111 performances.

Director Merrilee Drake has assembled a talented cast of actor/singers including Joe Musil as Jack Worthing, Julia Luster as Gwendolen Fairfax, Kevin Keith as Algernon Moncrieff, Kristin Aoun as Cecily Cardew, Mel Chadwick as Dr. Chasuble, Anne England as Miss Prism, Robert Nicholas Williams as Lane, Elizabeth England as Effie, James Bishop as Perkins, Kristle Bulleman as Alice, and last but not least Karen Merrill as Lady Bracknell.

This delightful ensemble piece uses songs to advance the story and adheres closely to the original play by Oscar Wilde. The musical direction is provided by the very talented Bill Wolfe of Huntington Beach. Julie Kirkpatrick of Rancho Cucamonga provides inventive musical staging. Ms. Drake is also delighted to be working with a fine technical crew including Stacey Clafin, Larry Bates, Karri Bates, Sandra Clafin and Win Carey.

Ernest in Love opens at Riverside Community Theatre on July 15 and runs for three weeks with evening performances on July 16, 21, 22, 23, 28, 29, 30 at 8pm and matinees at 2pm on July 17, 24, 30, and 31. Reservations can be made by calling (951) 686-4030.

Rancho Cucamonga's Victoria Gardens Cultural Center set to feature family friendly programming

Curtains are set to open in Summer 2006, revealing Southern California's newest performing arts venue: the Victoria Gardens Cultural Center in Rancho Cucamonga. But this story comes with a plot twist: the first of its kind in the Western United States, it will feature a 540-seat playhouse theatre and full-service Public Library, with a primary focus of programming for children, young adults and families.

"When we first envisioned this beautiful new center and thought about the needs of our community, we immediately realized that Professional Theatre for Young Audiences (TYA) would be a key component of our offerings. We have a community filled with parents and grandparents who are interested in sharing the arts with their children," Kevin McArdle, Community Services Director for the City of Rancho Cucamonga, said. "Families can attend professional stage performances close to home in an inviting, exciting atmosphere at Victoria Gardens."

"The region has grown at such an incredible rate, adding a second Library to serve the eastern portion of the City was very important to us," Deborah Clark, Library Services Director, said. "With the integration of Playhouse and Library programming and services with curriculum from our regional schools, we're able to provide an entertaining, educational experience that's unique to the Inland Empire, actually, unique to the Nation!"

The 87,000-square-foot Cultural Center is the fifth major anchor to the successful 1.5 million square foot regional shopping district, Victoria Gardens, which opened in October of 2004, at Foothill Boulevard and the I-15 Freeway. The Victoria Gardens Cultural Center is comprised of three elements: the Lewis Family Playhouse, a second full-service Library and a banquet / meeting space venue, Celebration Hall.

The 540-seat Lewis Family Playhouse will host a series of professional TYA performances, which take popular children's literary pieces and create stage productions such as: Charlotte's Web, Wind in the Willows and Adventures of Tom Sawyer. The Playhouse will also host a variety of Specialty Family events, guest artists and Authors' special performances that are appealing to all age groups.

To enhance its performing arts programming, the City of Rancho Cucamonga has launched the "Theatre Arts Academy" through its Community Services Department, offering learning workshops with hands-on lessons in acting, singing, dancing, stage and set design, and costuming. Workshops are now being offered at the temporary Theatre Arts Center located in Rancho Cucamonga until the Victoria Gardens Cultural Center construction is completed.

The 23,000-square-foot Library will have a state-of-the-art learning technology center, a children's story center, interactive media, young adult reading area, and a special performing arts collection. Celebration Hall will feature spacious 4,500-square-foot banquet and meeting room facilities to accommodate up to 300 guests for receptions.

Ramona Bowl to Present Joseph and the Technicolor Dreamcoat

The Ramona Bowl Amphitheater will present its inaugural production of the famous Broadway play Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat on the weekends of July 22 and 23, as well as an encore performance July 29 and 30. Doors open at 5pm with show time beginning promptly at 7pm. Dinner food and beverages will be available.

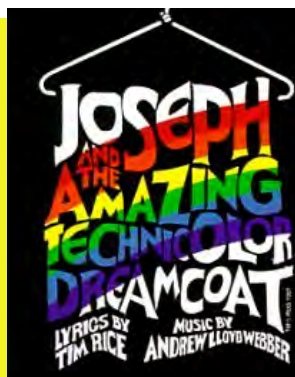

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat first premiered in 1968. The music was written by Broadway composer Andrew Lloyd Webber with lyricist Tim Rice providing the lyrics. The two have collaborated on other renowned Broadway productions, including Jesus Christ Superstar, Evita, and the longest running Broadway production, Cats.

Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is a comedic musical adaptation of the biblical story of Joseph, the favored son of Jacob, who was betrayed by his jealous brothers and sold into slavery, only to rise and become the Governor of Egypt. All the scenes are set for when his now starving brothers come wandering into Egypt looking for food.

Dennis Anderson, the Artistic Director for the Ramona Bowl, is excited about the upcoming production. "It's a musical that is just fun. It's a great comedic farce that tells the story of Joseph in a way that is fun and will be enjoyed by everyone. It has been absolutely loved by audiences everywhere, from Broadway to off-Broadway. We have never done a production of this play before, but everyone told us we have to do it, that it will just pack the house."

The wide-open outdoor setting of the Ramona Bowl makes a great place to stage the production. The rugged landscape surrounding the Amphitheatre complements the biblical Middle Eastern setting of Egypt.

Tickets are available for $18, with special group rates available. Tickets can be purchased online at ramonabowl.com, by phone at 800-645-4465 and in person at the Ramona Bowl ticket office from 10am to 4pm Monday through Friday. The Ramona Bowl Amphitheater is located at 27400 Ramona Bowl Road in Hemet.

The Sound of Music comes to Big Bear

The Community Arts Theater Society (CATS) of Big Bear Lake this month stages The Sound of Music. More than a classic, this show has become a phenomenon, and 2005 is a banner year for this all time favorite musical.

It is the 40th anniversary of the film's release, the 45th anniversary of the musical's first season on Broadway, and the 100th anniversary of the birth of Maria Von Trapp herself. Sellout performances are expected for this most beloved show; advance ticket purchases are highly recommended.

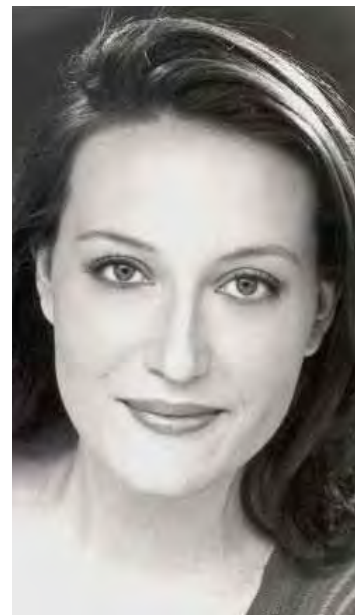

CATS Director and Choreographer Karen Sargent Rachels promises that this production of "The Sound of Music" will be a proper tribute for the show's celebratory, banner year. Starring as Maria Von Trapp, Big Bear's own Jennifer Flack returns from New York as a recent graduate of the American Musical and Dramatic Academy. Flack is also a veteran of the Big Bear stage, having appeared in CATS productions as a very young lady in a number of shows, including: Annie Get Your Gun, Life With Father, Man of La Mancha and as Luisa in The Fantastiks. Flack comments, "I am thrilled to be playing Maria and getting the chance to re-visit the place where my love for theater began."

A host of local talent will join Flack including Bill Ferguson as Captain Von Trapp, Joan Cline as Mother Abbess, Alicia Jimenez as Elsa Schroeder and Brian Adams as Max Detweiler.

In an astounding display of young talent, fourteen local children will alternately play the seven Von Trapp children: Amanda Fisch and Ginny Jimenez are double cast as Liesl, Jake Franklin and Kyle Gassmeyer will share the role of Fredrich, Caitlin Barney and Ashley Harris will play Louisa, Spencer Adams and Conner Hennebry will play Kurt, Amber Carpenter and Jodi Cline will alternate as Brigitta, Kayla McNamara and Sam Swanson double as Marta, and Madison and Taylor Waner will share the role of Gretl.

The show also features an exquisite female chorus of singing nuns which will be directed by Brian Adams. The amazing array of local talent will be showcased with spectacular costumes, sets and lighting.

Local girl Jennifer Flack stars as "Maria" in CATS' upcoming production of "The Sound of Music"

Tony Award-Winning 'Dreamgirls' tells a big, 'Supremes' story

Dreams do come true as Ben Bollinger's Candlelight Pavilion Dinner Theatre in Claremont presents the immensely popular six-time Tony Award-winning fictional story of The Supremes, "Dreamgirls," running July 8 through August 28.

"Dreamgirls" is high voltage. It's the fictitious story of three talented singers from Chicago (not Detroit) who rise from nowhere to superstardom. These young and inexperienced members of The Dreamettes appear on Harlem's legendary Apollo Theatre stage in 1962 and become backup singers for hotter n' hot soul singer James Thunder Early. Their manager uses persistence and payola to see that the group hits the top of the pop charts in the early '60s.

"Dreamgirls" first opened on Broadway in 1981 to rave reviews and immediately became one of the most popular musicals ever to play Broadway. It was nominated for 13 Tony's, won six and ran on Broadway for 1,521 performances. The original productions starred Jennifer Holliday and Sheryl Lee Ralph.

"Dreamgirls" will be filmed next year as a major motion picture under the direction of Bill Condon ("Kinsey," "Gods And Monsters") and will star 2004 Academy Award Winning best Actor Jamie Foxx ("Ray"), Destiny's Child lead singer Beyonce, two-time Grammy-winning pop singer Usher and Eddie Murphy as James Thunder Early.

"Dreamgirls" at the Candlelight Pavilion is sponsored by Crestview Cadillac and is followed by a brief Fourth of July holiday weekend (June 30 - July 3) run of "Honk," the delightful family-oriented musical based on the classic tale of "The Ugly Duckling," featuring a cast of sixty-one children. Six-time Tony Award winner, "Dreamgirls," the hugely successful Broadway musical loosely based on the rise of the Supremes, runs July 8 through August 28.

The National Dinner Theatre Association rates The Candlelight Pavilion Dinner Theatre, which is currently celebrating its 20th Anniversary, as the premiere dinner theatre in the United States.

Admission includes salad (fruit salad for matinees), choice of entrée, beverage, sales tax and the show. Appetizers, alcoholic beverages, desserts and gratuity are additional. All major credit cards are accepted and parking is free. ■
