Theater is hopping!

Theater events in the Inland Empire are very lively in August! Our cover features the Candlelight Dinner Theater in Claremont, which is celebrating 20 years of great productions. Read all about it on page 20. There are great productions coming up from Riverside Community Players ("The Constant Wife"), Ramona Bowl ("Odd Couple"), Sinbad and Jonny Lang at Soboba Casino, and more.

In our continuing quest to keep you cool, we offer a couple of articles from heading out to the ocean (p. 4) to heading up to the mountains (p. 10). Also, check out Tom's Farms new car show, Blazing August Nights (p. 5). It's their first hot rod event and is designed to please car enthusiasts and the entire family, making it a fun event.

Ocean adventures

Set sail with Davey's Locker and discover the treasures of the deep

With the summer months beating down on the Inland Empire, escaping to the ocean starts looking particularly attractive. If you've never been on a boat for an outing at sea, this may just be your ticket out of the heat.

Davey's Locker Sportfishing and Whale Watching, located at the historic Balboa Pavilion in Newport Beach, offers entertaining ocean excursions year round. Davey's Locker offers 1/2 day, 3/4 day, full day, twilight, and shark trips with multi-day trips mixed in.

When the curtain of summer begins to close, the fishing really starts to heat up, along with the water. Wide open sand bass and barracuda continue to be the hot species in the area with the highest concentrations conveniently located directly off Newport Beach, making for some of the best fishing in California.

In August, big game such as yellow-tail, dorado, and yellowfin tuna steal the show, with the water temperature at its peak of the entire year.

Through August, a kids' fishing tournament takes place through Davey's Locker aimed at promoting the future of sportfishing. Through this tournament, Davey's Locker provides a positive, safe, and fun environment for young anglers when school is out and award them with cool prizes and trophies.

During the holiday season of late December, the annual Newport Harbor Parade of Lights quickly takes center stage, drawing in thousands of people to gaze at the multitude of ornately lighted yachts and homes. With nightly tours, Davey's Locker gets right in the middle of the action. Each vessel is decorated with lights that allow for them to be a part of the processional route, not just a bystander. Each of the boats is also available for private parties.

Davey's Locker begins its season of whale watching December 26 through March. In those few months, hundreds of California Gray whales grace the water with their enormous presence while Davey's sends a minimum of 2 to 3 trips daily to catch a glimpse. Every year, the California Gray whale migrates from the bone-chilling waters of the Arctic to the warm, tropical lagoons of Baja California and Mexico. It is this migratory route that allows humans to view these remarkable creatures in their natural habitat.

To get more information, call Davey's Locker at (949) 673-1434, or go online to www.daveyslocker.com.

Tom's Farms is 'Blazin'

Car show and family fun in August

Tom's Farms in Corona is "Blazin'" in August, hosting their new car show event, Blazin' August Nights. From 3pm to 10pm every Thursday in August, Tom's Farms will host the festival style event, featuring car shows and competition, live music, as well as rides and games.

Blazin' August Nights features more than 200 of Southern California's finest custom automobiles and choppers on display ranging from Hot Rods & Super Customs to Lamborghinis and Bentley's.

There is plenty of family fun as well, with carnival rides and Tom's new 24 gauge replica steam train, food, refreshments, raffles and giveaways.

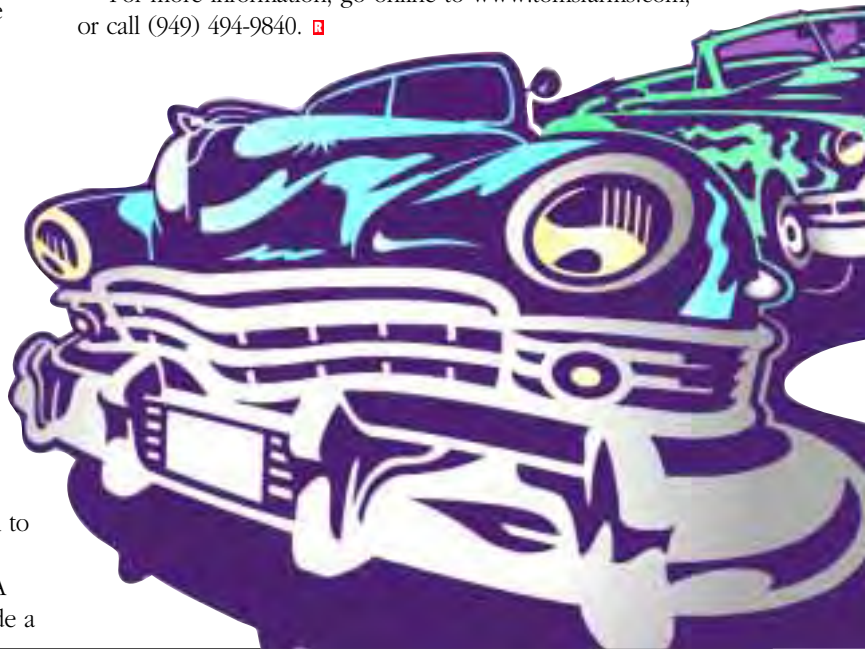

Not just for car enthusiasts, Blazin' August Nights offers something for the whole family. "We have a long tradition of family events here at Tom's Farms," owners Tom and Kristine Barnes said. "Our goal is to bring together the best automobiles in a fun safe family environment to provide entertainment for our guests and a positive event for the southland."

Starting as a produce stand in 1974, Tom's Farms has grown to now include a hamburger restaurant, wine and cheese shoppe, duck pond, country furniture store, and a mexican restaurant. A new Family Fun Center is under construction, which will include a train ride that runs under a covered bridge and an old time carousel.

Tom's Farms is located in Corona off the 15 freeway at Temescal Canyon Rd., south of the 91 freeway.

OakTree Village - family fun close to home

"Chuckie," the green iguana, one of many animal encounters at OakTree Village.

If you're looking for a location for family fun, that the kids can enjoy and the adults appreciate, check out the hidden charm of OakTree Village in Oak Glen.

Nestled in the tranquil San Bernardino Mountains, OakTree Village has something for everyone. Shop the stores, take the kids to the Animal Park, see an animal show and let your kids touch some of them in the Petting Farm. You can even try your hand at trout fishing in one of three stocked kid-friendly ponds, or feed fish, ducks, geese and swans.

Take a walk on a scenic nature trail or visit the 10,000 square-foot Mountain Town Museum, home to animal mounts from around the world.

New to OakTree is the Exotic Animal exhibit, including a 40-pound indian crested porcupine, an endangered South African serval cat and a 16-foot albino burmese python and baby anaconda.

Every weekend at OakTree Village witness a live gunfight, take a pony ride or a train ride, and visit the crafters' booths.

OakTree Village is open throughout the year, from 10am to 5pm, and is located at 38480 Oak Glen Rd. in Oak Glen. For more information, call (909) 797-4020 or go online to www.oaktree-village.com.

Toyo Tires California Truck Jamboree, the Show of Shows

On May 22, the Toyo Tires California Truck Jamboree returned for a record breaking event, with 550 vehicles, 60 vendors and over 8,500 spectators. The massive truck fest, with custom and classic trucks, a bikini contest and more, returns this month at the Verizon Amphitheater in Irvine, Aug. 28.

The California Truck Jamboree was originally created in 1987. The show went unchanged for many years, until recently when the new owners decided to bring it more up to date.

"We have created a family atmosphere event with the excitement of many different activities in one show and lowering the admission price," Pierre Hoffmann, President of California Jamboree, said. Admission is now $12, with kids 12 and under free.

ESPN and TV show Eye Candy will cover the August event, promising that many show truck owners will show off in the burnout contest, air hop and style contests. More than 700 trucks will display the best in modifications to showcase the best of the best in trucks and compete for prizes and over 180 trophies.

Activities for kids have been added to the Jam, including a chocolate milk contest, jumpers and more. To keep things cool, misters are available throughout the event.

The Toyo Tires California Truck Jamboree takes place from 9am to 5pm at the Verizon Amphitheater at the Hidden Valley Park, 8800 Irvine Center Drive, Irvine. Parking is free. Discount tickets are available online at www.TruckJam.com. For more information visit the website or call 310-326-4526. ☐

Summer Inspiration

Our series of success letters from the weight-loss battlefields

A year and a half ago my life changed. I will never forget the first day I walked into Curves. I had no idea what 30 min. a day three times a week would do for me. I was 230 lbs and 5'6" tall and I can honestly say I have tried everything known to man to lose weight. The staff at Curves was so understanding and friendly. A staff member weighed me after my first month at Curves and I had lost 16 lbs and so many inches I couldn't count. Today, I am 60 lbs lighter and the friends I have made at Curves are like family. Curves to me is not a weight loss program but a lifestyle change I decided to make for me.

Rodeo returns to Norco

21st PRCA rodeo rides to town

It's rodeo time once again in Norco, the Inland Empire's own "Horsetown." The 21st Annual Norco Mounted Posse PRCA Rodeo runs August 26-28 at Ingalls Park in Norco.

The event will feature three performances of rodeo action, including bullriding, barrel racing, bareback riding and more. The top PRCA cowboys and cowgirls will do their best to claim thousands in prize money, to the delight of rodeo fans.

Vendor row provides food, western art and more.

Following the performances on Friday and Saturday, enjoy a rodeo dance with live music provided by the Merchants of Moonshine. Held at the rodeo grounds, the event will feature a 5,000 square-foot dance floor, a full bar and food. Attendees must be 21 years of age or older. The dance is free on Friday night for rodeo ticket holders and $5 on Saturday.

In addition to the rodeo performance, the event will feature a Challenged Children's Rodeo on Sunday, at 4:30pm. Special needs children compete in a mock rodeo, giving them the opportunity to experience the thrills they see in the arena.

Also on Sunday, Cowboy Church will be performed in the grandstands at 10am.

Ingalls Park can be found off the 15 Freeway, exit 6th St. in Norco and head east. ■

WHEN: Aug. 26-28, Fri. & Sat. gates open 5pm, rodeo 7:30pm, Sun. gates open 3pm, rodeo 6pm.

WHERE: Ingalls Park, Norco

TICKETS: Fri. & Sat. $10 pre-sale, $12 at the gate. Kids 10 and under free. Sat. $15, kids 3 and under free. Parking $5.

Escape to the Lake

Big Bear Lake offers retreat from summer heat

Many Inland Empire residents looking to escape the summer heat head for the hills of Big Bear Lake. While the mountain is a snowtime retreat in the winter, it makes an equally enjoyable watery getaway in the summer.

The deep blue skies, mild temperatures, sunshine, and vast amounts of aquatic sports make the trek to the seven-mile lake a must for many. Activities range from action-packed to easy-going. Visitors can be found racing across the lake on waverunners or jet skis, kayaking or canoeing along the lake's coves and inlets, skimming the water on skis or wakeboards, or sailing with a little help from the constant lake breezes. Another one-of-kind experience is parasailing to experience a completely different perspective of Big Bear Valley's beauty.

For the less adventurous, narrated lake tours are offered onboard the Big Bear Queen paddle-wheel boat or the Spanish galleon replica, the Big Bear Pirate Ship. Meadow Park Swim Beach is open daily and has protected areas for children to enjoy splashing in the clear lake waters. Adjacent, there are play areas for volleyball, tennis and barbecues.

Big Bear Lake is a first-rate trout fishery because its depths allow trout to thrive, even in the heat of summer. It is one of only a handful of Southern California lakes to get planted with rainbow trout. Big Bear Lake received 154,000 lbs. of rainbow trout last year from the Department of Fish and Game (DFG), and from April through October DFG will once again stock the lake regularly with approximately 2000 lbs. of rainbow trout every two weeks.

Several marinas offer boat rentals, bait, tackle and licenses, docks and repair services. Launch ramps are found at all marinas and the north shore public ramps.

For more information about Big Bear Lake activities, to book accommodations, or to request a Visitors Guide, log on to www.bigbear.com or call 1.800.4.BIG.BEAR (1.800.424.4232). ■

Make a break for the beach!

Summer Link continues with easy travel to the surf and sand

There's still time to hop aboard the Summer Link Beach Train for a fun day at the beaches of San Clemente and Oceanside.

Summer Link service continues until the second weekend of October with the choice of three trains per day between Rialto and Oceanside. Given the traffic on the freeway, the rising cost of gas and the hassle of parking at the beach, Riverside and San Bernardino County residents are taking the train in record numbers.

"The new schedules and choice of trains make it so easy to get to the Beach without having to make the drive," said San Jacinto resident Anne Hallberg. "Driving to the Beach can be such a hassle. Metrolink takes away the stress of driving, parking and getting all that sand out of your car."

The Beach Train used to be a special charter that offered only one round-trip per day. The new Summer Link service offers a number of conveniences that are available only to regular Metrolink passengers. Tickets are purchased from machines on the platforms, instead of through advance purchase ticket outlets, and riders have more choices regarding when they can make their trip. As a result, no more worries about missing the only train or having to plan ahead to make the trip.

The other good news is that there is so much to do when you get off the train. The San Clemente shuttle, which runs between the San Clemente Pier and Downtown, is operating on a regular schedule and a number of major events are planned throughout the summer, including the Oceanside Harbor Day Festival on September 17 and 18 and the San Clemente Sea Fest and Chowder Cook Off on October 9.

Passengers also have the chance to win gift certificates and gift baskets throughout the season by entering a drawing conducted by merchants in Downtown San Clemente.

Summer Link Beach Train service will be offered every Saturday and Sunday until October 9, with the exception of Labor Day weekend. For Summer Link Beach Train information log on to www.rctc.org and click on the Beach Train button or go to www.metrolinktrains.com/beachtrains. Or, call 1-800-371-LINK for information. ■

Sinbad performs at Soboba, Aug. 26

Comedian Sinbad is set to bring down the house at Soboba Casino on Aug. 26. Tickets for the 8pm show are $35 reserved and $20 general admission.

Born in Benton Harbor, MI, Sinbad grew up telling jokes to his three brothers and two sisters. Sinbad's first love was basketball and the Globetrotters were a childhood dream. He won a basketball scholarship to the University of Denver. Basketball's loss was comedy's gain and Sinbad has become one of stand-up's biggest names.

It began in 1983, when he embarked on his Poverty Tour, going from city to city on the Greyhound, from comedy club to comedy club, working for meals, changing out of hotel restrooms. Sinbad's break was Star Search in the mid eighties. He was never a winner, but good enough to get on the show seven times and become a finalist. That led to a TV movie and a role as Redd Foxx's son on The New Redd Fox Show. The next break came from Bill Cosby, who became a fan and cast him in A Different World which, along with Sinbad's stint as host of It's Showtime at the Apollo, allowed him to eventually do the 1991 Share the Dream Tour of historically black colleges - a tour backed by Coca-Cola, United Airlines and B.E.T. (Black Entertainment Television).

Laughlin Games

Popular 'Pyramid of Cash Sweepstakes' returns to Flamingo Laughlin

A player favorite promotion at the Laughlin Flamingo promises to win some lucky player a "mountain of money." The "Pyramid of Cash" sweepstakes is back for a fourth year and brings with it thousands of dollars in cash prizes.

With $10,000 at stake per player, participants can earn entries to daily drawings and a possible chance at the "Pyramid of Cash" by playing their favorite slot and table games. Drawings and qualifying rounds will be held twice daily at 1pm and 6pm at the Center Stage.

Once five contestants have been drawn, they will participate in a two-minute slot tournament to determine one lucky winner who will play "Pyramid of Cash."

Complete with three "second chances," the player who advances to "Pyramid of Cash" can win cash prizes ranging from $5 to $10,000 by rolling specially marked dice. Prizes are determined by the number square, multiplied by the dollar amount on that particular square's level. A player may choose not to continue at any level and keep the last cash prize already earned.

Contestants must be present at the time of drawing to play and can only play once per day. Tickets to enter the daily drawings can be earned in many ways. For more information on the "Pyramid of Cash" promotion, stop by the Flamingo Connection Center in the Flamingo Laughlin casino or call (702) 298-5111 or (800) 435-8469.

The promotion ends on August 31, 2005. No purchase is necessary.

Summer Fun Idea

Fiesta Village returns as a family favorite

When it comes to family fun and entertainment, Fiesta Village Family Fun Park has been a local favorite for years. The park opened its doors in 1971 and enjoyed great success for many years as one of the most popular family destinations in the Inland Empire.

As the Inland Empire grew, and competition increased, Fiesta Village felt the crunch in the late 1990's and closed for a short time. In 2002 it was purchased by its current owner, and attendance has doubled since the reopening.

Fiesta Village's recent success is due to a complete remodeling of the facility, the addition of new attractions including the Carnival Rides, the building of more party facilities with expanded services and a strong focus on guest services.

Today, Fiesta Village offers a variety of fun experiences throughout the year. The Pyrite Rapids Waterpark is perfect for cool summer fun, complete with its own party areas. The Village also boasts two of the largest 18 hole miniature golf courses in the Inland Empire, with challenges for golfers of all ages.

Fiesta's Carnival Rides offer guests a brand new experience at the park and the Fiesta Raceway is competitive four-wheel fun.

Fiesta Village is home to the largest batting cage facility in Southern California, with both baseball and softball.

The Fiesta Arcade, in addition to the games, offers several indoor party areas.

Fiesta Village has undergone many changes over the last three years, making it once again a family favorite.

Fiesta Village is located at 1405 E. Washington St. in Colton. For more information, call (909) 824-1111 or go online to www.fiestavillage.com.

The 'ultimate' party house

AirTime caters to kids' desire to move

There's no way around it ... kids love to bounce! Whether it's on the bed, a trampoline, or a bouncy, they can't get enough of it. AirTime, "the ultimate party house," in Murrieta has taken this fact and created a party fun zone for kids full of inflatable entertainment.

AirTime is an indoor playground full of inflated toys, bouncies, and activities designed for kids parties. AirTime is only available for rental as a party facility, making for the ultimate private bouncy event. In addition to the inflatable attractions, AirTime can offer pizza, goodie bags and balloons.

The 10,000 square-foot facility is filled with activity, from the inflatable attractions to a karaoke stage and a video arcade. Party packages start at $250 and can include up to 25 guests.

In addition to hosting parties, AirTime also offers a special opportunity for busy parents. Mom's Night

Out on Tuesdays, from 6 to 9pm, give parents a chance to enjoy some time alone while their children have the time of their life. AirTime will supervise and entertain your child, giving parents some free time of their own. For $25 for the first child, and $15 for each additional child, AirTime will treat them to pizza and drinks along with their usual activities.

AirTime is located in Murrieta at 26670 Madison Ave. For more information, go online to www.airtimeparty.com or call (951) 304-2028. ■

Theater & the Arts

The Candlelight Pavilion

Twenty years of shows and dining

Combining fine theater, family entertainment, and exquisite dining, the Candlelight Pavilion dinner theater in Claremont has been treating audiences for twenty years. Under the guidance of the same owner for all that time, the Candlelight has established itself as a unique Inland Empire experience.

"The Candlelight Pavilion is currently celebrating its 20th Anniversary 'Season of Excellence' and offers the community outstanding culture by presenting the finest in musical theatre productions the entire family will love," General Manager Mick Bollinger said.

Bollinger should know. He's been at the theatre since day one and follows in the footsteps of his father, Ben, the well-known and respected owner of the theatre. Ben faces another milestone this month when he retires on August 31 as Dean of Fine Arts at Citrus College in Glendora, where he taught for more than thirty-five years. Ben's annual "Christmas Is..." productions have become the stuff of local legend and this heartwarming and highly popular tradition will continue at the college under the direction of Ben's longtime right-hand man, Doug Austin.

The intimate and elegant Candlelight Pavilion seats 300 comfortably and is an ideal venue for fundraisers, company events, church and club outings, civic and community organizations and other groups.

The setting and production are only part of the equation at the Candlelight. The Bollinger's are also proud of the culinary experience patrons enjoy.

"Our chef, Kerry McCain, is a true master who never ceases to dazzle our audience with his latest gourmet culinary creations," Bollinger said. "An evening at

Welk Theatre presents '42nd Street'

The Welk Resort Theatre presents its third production of the 2005 season with "42nd Street," playing through August 28. The Tony Award winning play, originally directed on Broadway by Gower Champion, relates the story of a stage struck actress, Peggy Sawyer, who comes to the big city to begin her theatrical career as a chorus girl.

The show's leading lady cannot go on and Peggy is thrust into her role and must learn twenty-five pages of dialogue, six songs, and ten dance numbers in twenty-four hours. The journey to opening night includes comedy, drama, much humor, and great musical numbers reminiscent of Broadway from years past.

Well known musical numbers from 42nd Street include We're In The Money, Lullaby of Broadway, Shuffle Off To Buffalo, Dames, and of course, 42nd Street.

Director Jon Engstrom was in the Broadway production under the direction of Gower Champion and brings a great deal of knowledge and ingenuity to this production. A very talented cast has been assembled to bring this show to life. The choreography is sure to delight audiences and will bring back memories of great dance shows from years past.

42nd Street is well known for tap dancing numbers which sizzle. San Diego resident and San Diego State M.F.A. student Nicole Werner makes her Welk Theatre debut as Peggy Sawyer. Welk favorite Andrew Hussmann and former San Diego resident Jamie Torcellini also join the cast in leading roles. ■

Performance Riverside presents Ragtime

Performance Riverside opens its 2005-2006 season with the Tony Award-winning musical Ragtime. Drawing on musical traditions ranging from Jewish folk to vaudeville to Joplin to jazz, Ragtime invokes the magic and spirit of Harlem at the turn of the century. Performance Riverside hired Ragtime veteran Paul David Bryant as director/choreographer.

Performance Riverside's production reunites Bryant with Musical Director Paul LeMaster. They last paired in the Moonlight Stage Productions' Smokey Joe's Café in 2003, which played to widespread acclaim.

Ragtime runs at the Riverside Community College Landis Performing Arts Center (4800 Magnolia Ave.) in Riverside on Sept. 16, 17, 23, and 24 at 8pm, Sept. 17, 18, 24, and 25 at 2pm, and Sept. 25 at 7pm. Ticket prices are $35, $30, $25, and $20. For more information call 951-222-8100 or go online to www.performanceriverside.org.

Originally produced in 1927 at the Strand Theatre in London, this intelligent and witty comedy from W. Somerset Maugham takes a surprisingly modern look at the relationship of marriage. To all outward appearances, Constance and John Middleton have the ideal marriage. Appearances, however, can be deceiving as one of them has a very big secret. The real question is just which one is actually keeping the secret? A sophisticated and brilliant English comedy about marital fidelity.

Opposites repel in Neil Simon's 'Odd Couple'

The historic Ramona Bowl Amphitheatre in Hemet presents in August Neil Simon's best-loved comedy, The Odd Couple. The production is part of the Bowl's Courtyard Dinner Theatre presentations.

The Courtyard Dinner Theatre Program, in its fifth season, features a fully catered and served dinner and a performance on the Courtyard Theatre stage, set at the entrance to the Ramona Bowl.

Tables of eight are available as well as individual seats, with all tables less than 50 feet from the stage. Adding to the uniqueness of this theatre experience is the outdoor setting of the Courtyard Theatre, which capitalizes on the fabulous sunsets, the summer evening breeze and incredible valley view the Ramona Bowl offers.

The Odd Couple first opened on Broadway in 1965. The play stars recently divorced neat freak Felix Unger, forced to move in with his pal Oscar Madison, a total slob who is himself divorced. The play documents the humorous conflict that develops as these friends try to live together as best they can, while slowly but surely their opposite personalities clash with more and more intensity.

Janine Mundwiler, General Manager of the Ramona Bowl, thinks The Odd Couple will make a great play for the Courtyard Dinner. "The play is all about the dynamics of living with someone else. Almost everyone has had to endure living or working with people who have habits and personalities that conflicted with our own, especially when it came to cleanliness. I think one of the reasons the play is so popular is that it makes fun of that situation. We all can relate and laugh with Felix and Oscar as they try to live with each other," Mundwiler said.

The Ramona Bowl ticket office is open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Ramona Bowl Amphitheatre is located at 27400 Ramona Bowl Road in Hemet. ■

Victoria Gardens Cultural Center

Donation brings Center closer to completion

The Victoria Gardens Cultural Center took a big step toward completion July 15 when administrators announced a donation of $500,000 from Bank of America.

The donation will help fund the Rancho Cucamonga Cultural Center, which will become a community gathering-place with a new theater, library, and events center. The Center is currently under construction.

The donation will go toward construction and to fund an endowment for literacy and cultural programs. Sponsors and endorsements from other sources are being sought, and the Bank of America contribution brings the total to about $3 million.

Plans call for the center to be completed in about a year. The courtyard outside of the Lewis Family Playhouse will be named the "Bank of America Imagination Courtyard."

The newly established Rancho Cucamonga Theatre Arts Academy, which will stage productions in the Lewis Family Playhouse, has found a temporary home at the James L. Brulte Senior Center. Performing arts education and instruction will provide opportunities for children, teens and adults to explore their knowledge and skills in acting, musical theatre, auditioning, make-up, costuming, theatre craft and technical theatre. Programs designed specifically for each age group (youth, teens and adults) will be offered with professional theatre artists, teachers and directors.

The temporary site will also serve as auditioning and rehearsal space for the Community Theatre group who recently held a performance of "The World Goes 'Round" to christen this temporary space. ■

The Rancho Cucamonga Theatre Arts Academy staged a production of "The World Goes 'Round" to commemorate their temporary lodgings at the James L. Brulte Senior Center. The group is set to move into the Lewis Family Playhouse when completed.

Film Fest coming to Big Bear Lake

The sixth annual Big Bear Lake International Film Festival will be held the weekend of September 16-18, 2005. The festival highlights independent feature-length films, student films, short films, documentaries, family films, animation films, digital films and a screenwriting competition. Juried awards, audience awards, animation awards, family film award and screenwriting competition awards will be presented. This year's Lifetime Achievement Award for Cinematography will be given to Dante Spinotti, ASC on Friday, September 16 at the Opening Night Gala.

"We are excited about going into our sixth year and we continue to grow as a film festival," festival president Gail M. McCarthy said.

In addition to a successful screenwriting competition, the festival hosts an annual screenwriting/filmmaker panel discussion with many of the film industry jurors in attendance. There will be a special Cinematography event with Dante Spinotti, ASC on Saturday, September 17. Clips of his films will be showcased along with a Q&A session.

For more information, tickets, becoming a volunteer or festival sponsor visit www.bigbearlakefilmfestival.com or call (909) 866-3433. The Big Bear Lake International Film Festival is a non-profit organization.

the Candlelight is a real treat, if I do say so myself. To arrive a couple hours early and enjoy an appetizer, a drink or two and one of Kerry's wonderful meals and then see our musical presentation really is a wonderful way to spend an evening."

Bollinger emphasized that his theatre is a family affair and indeed, is all about families, noting that his sister Mindy is Marketing Director and his brother Mark is Chief Financial Officer.

"Theater in general is a uniting enterprise that brings together men, women and children of all backgrounds and we've tried our best to bring that one-ness to our community for the past two decades," Bollinger said.

The theater isn't just for adults, either, Bollinger said. With budget cuts forcing many schools to cut music appreciation and drama courses, an experience at the theater is more important than ever for children.

The Candlelight Pavilion's 2005 season continues with the following productions:

- "Dreamgirls" (through August 28), the high-voltage Tony Award winner based on the rise of one of the greatest pop singing groups in history, the Supremes.

- "20th Anniversary Jubilee" (September 2 – 18), featuring many favorite musical moments from the Candlelight stage these past two decades.

- "Forever Plaid" (September 23 – October 9), the very popular, irresistibly melodic and hilarious musical featuring hits made famous by the "boy groups" of the '50s and '60s.

- "The Sound of Music" (October 14 – November 20), simply the most popular musical of all time, beloved of families the world over.

- "The Wonderful World of Christmas" (November 25 – December 30) is a magical and nostalgic favorite that has become legend, with a story that changes with each year.

Ben Bollinger's Candlelight Pavilion Dinner Theatre is located at 455 W. Foothill Blvd. in Claremont. Seating for the dinner shows Thursday through Saturday begins at 6pm, with the curtain rising at 8:15pm. Seating on Sunday evenings begins at 5pm with a 7:15pm curtain time. There are also matinee performances on Saturdays, Sunday and selected Thursdays, with seating beginning at 11am and curtain at 12:45pm.

Show Review

Candlelight Pavilion serves up a fine evening

By Joe Colella

Without question, the Candlelight Pavilion Dinner Theater, in Claremont, is a tremendous entertainment value. Where else can you have a gourmet meal, live musical theater entertainment, excellent service in an elegant atmosphere with first class décor and pay as low as $35.00?

I tried the Chicken Breast stuffed with Tasso and Boursin cheese wrapped in puff pastry served with Cajun Buerre Blanc. It was wonderful. My wife had the Slow Roasted Tri Tip entre marinated with French dressing and served with tomato concasse, sautéed mushrooms and Cabernet sauce. My friends, the Slow Roasted Tri Tip is fantastic. You could cut it with a fork and it melts in your mouth.

The ticket price includes the show, dinner entree with salad, fresh rolls and sales tax.

The currently running show, the Tony Award winning Dreamgirls, is a song-filled feast of music and dance loosely based on the career of the Supremes.

What a talented cast of singers! They were all fantastic. The vocal talent of Vonetta Mixson, who plays the character of Effie, absolutely blew me away. You can go to Boston, New York and Los Angeles and you will not find a stronger and more versatile vocal presence as I heard from Vonetta Mixson. She was worth the price of admission herself.

With excellent dining, top-notch shows all at an affordable rate, The Candlelight Pavilion Dinner Theater in Claremont is one of the Best Entertainment Values in the Inland Empire. ☐
