An apple a day ...

I don't know if an apple a day keeps the doc away, but if you head up to Oak Glen to get your apples, it can sure make your kids happy. Oak Glen, in the foothills of San Bernardino County, is a unique farming community that's part theme-park, part local living history. Oak Glen is at its best during the apple season, which begins this month. For more about Oak Glen, and our guide for getting around, see the cover story on page 6.

If you're looking for a good concert, maybe you should consider an entire day of concerts. At the Latin Music Festival, on Sept. 18, you can hear eight hours of the top talents in Latin music, including Jorge Santana. For a rundown of the show, see our article on page 4.

And speaking of festivals, one of the world's most celebrated festivals is coming to Big Bear Lake ... the famed Oktoberfest. The festivities begin Sept. 25, and one does Oktoberfest in the Inland Empire like Big Bear. Check out this annual tradition on page 8.

As usual, these pages are full of additional entertainment goodness. Enjoy!

Jorge Santana headlines hot-list of bands

Downtown San Bernardino comes alive Sept. 18 with eight-hours of Latin concerts, headlined by Jorge Santana.

The musical extravaganza is part of the annual Latin Music Festival, which brings together a range of artists. This year's stage will be shared by Santana, Malo, the East LA Revue Band, The Village Callers "1966," Chico, Mickey Lespron, and the Best of Everything. The event will be hosted by Frankie Firme of KCLA FM radio, with comedy interludes provided by Gilbert Esquivel.

Event organizers listened to the requests of last year's concert goers and have expanded the dance area to two large floors to move to the live music.

Music veteran Jorge Santana headlines the show. Santana, brother of Carlos Santana, traces his musical career back to the late 1960s, when he started in blues rhythms. Santana has been a career musician ever since, performing, writing and producing.

The event takes place "under the stars" at the Arrowhead Credit Union Park, a baseball stadium offering plenty of space for concert-goers.

The event will also feature vendors, food, apparel, music CDs, and memorabilia.

General seating is available for $25, with special seating offered at $40. R

WHEN: Sept. 18, 3-11 pm

When bikes fly

American Heat gets bigger, better venue

Roadshows Inc. is the producer of American Heat and several of the largest motorcycle events in the nation.

"Biker's Build-Off" which airs on the Discovery Channel plans to be at the event to let attendees vote on their favorite custom bike.

According to Burke, the Coachella Valley is a beautiful location for a motorcycle rally and the Palm Springs area provides a spectacular route for poker runs and bike games.

More than 100 vendors will present their wares in Chrome Alley. Shoppers will find everything from new leathers and chrome accessories to a new carburetor from morning until night on both Saturday and Sunday.

American Heat's poker run will take participants to places they've probably never seen before, even if they live in the area.

Stunt shows designed to amaze will leave you wondering if the thrill seekers are insane. LivFast aerial stunt team members fly 70-feet through the air, 40-feet off the ground and land practically on a postage stamp.

Bike games, food, secured 24-hour parking for both bikes and hot rods, and plenty of activity are what you'll find at "American Heat." R

Motorcycle vendors and activities will fill a huge special events plaza on N. Calle El Segundo between E. Andreas and E.

Tahquitz Canyon in Palm Springs for American Heat, Oct. 8-10. The motorcycle extravaganza also includes live music, amazing stunt shows and bike games.

"This will allow us a lot more leeway in providing vendors, entertainment and stunt shows – since we aren't limited to the width of a city street," Randy Burke, president of Roadshows, Inc., said.

Of Apples and Oak Glen

The apple community enters its season

Crowds enjoy the sunshine and cool weather at Oaktree Village in Oak Glen. The Glen is one of the Inland Empire's best family getaway spots, with lots to do and see for kids and adults.

By Tom Pigeon

When Enoch Parrish planted his first apple tree in the foothills of San Bernardino in 1860 I'm sure he never envisioned that legions of families would someday flock to the Glen to enjoy sunshine and, of course, apples.

But the seed that Parrish planted wasn't just a crop, it became an Inland Empire institution. Word spread about the fertile land in the mountains, perfect for producing crisp, delicious apples. The farms are still there and still producing apples to everyone's delight.

Oak Glen has evolved over the years into an interesting blend of working farms and theme park. It's the perfect destination for families looking for an outing, with plenty of activities and interests for kids plus attractions for adults ... like great apple pie.

Oak Glen operates year-round, but the official apple season begins in September and runs through November. This is when you will find Oak Glen at its best, with plenty of apples, lots of variety, and bushels of country charm.

Oak Glen's attractions run from family-oriented activities to nature-inspired tranquility. Activities include: apple picking, trout fishing, numerous restaurants and bakeries, live music, shops and crafters, western shows, cider mills to tour, panning for gold, festivals, petting farms, animal shows, Civil War re-enactments, nature trails, and more.

Oaktree Village

One of Oak Glen's family highlights is Oaktree Village, a one-stop activity zone that has all that's alluring about Oak Glen. The Village is a 14-acre family entertainment park with a collection of restaurants and a wide range of entertainment options, including music, craft fairs, fishing contests, a petting farm, train rides, animal park and reptile cave, gold & mineral panning, pony rides, goat milking, animal shows, a jumper, face painting, and shops.

I tested the Village out on my resident expert, Ally, my four-year-old daughter. She took to the Animal Park right away, which hosts more than 100 animals from llamas and sheep to New Guinean Singing Dogs. For a quarter you can get a handful of food from a vending machine to feed the animals through the fence, another big hit with Ally.

We arrived just in time to witness a piglet race, and Ally was chosen as one of three piglet "coaches." She stood alongside the other children, yelling "soo-EEEE!" urging her pig on, and loving it. This kind of activity may not appeal to everyone, but to parents, it's gold. Luckily, if pig racing isn't your thing, there's plenty more to do at Oak Tree.

The Mountain Town Museum is another child-pleaser. Housed inside a 10,000 sq. ft. building, the museum is a re-creation of a mountain. A cave-like entrance opens up displays of animals from around the world, as well as the newly added Live Exotic Animal Exhibit.

Oaktree recently renovated its primary restaurant, Apple Annie's. Be sure to drop by and try their homemade apple pie and other mouth-watering selections.

With free general admission, free parking, and attractions in the $3 range, Oaktree Village is a joy for adventure-seeking children and budget-conscious parents alike.

Oaktree Village is open everyday throughout the year, except Thanksgiving and Christmas, from 10am to 5pm. Parking is free. The Animal Park costs $3 per person, and includes the Petting Farm and Trout Ponds (there is a separate fee to fish). The Mountain Town Museum and Reptile Cave cost $3 per person.

For more information about Oaktree Village call (909) 797-4020.

Riley's Farm

If you not only love fresh apples, but American history, then Oak Glen has a unique attraction in Riley's Farm.

Riley's is a working apple orchard as well as a living history farm in Oak Glen. In addition to farming sweet corn, apples, raspberries, pears, and sunflowers, Riley's offers a venue for historical re-enactments comprising many different eras.

Every year, thousands of students participate in tours, where they experience everything from weaving, candle-dipping, and cider pressing to the drill and muster of a Revolutionary War or Civil War battle. Riley's has appeared on the History Channel and in the feature film, Amistad, as well as many other film and television productions.

Want to not just see the history, but live it? Riley's offers that too with a "Farm Stay" weekend. A family can experience the life of an 18th or 19th century American farmer, complete with authentic clothing, wood stoves, and muskets.

For more about Riley's Farm call (909) 790-8463, or go online to www.rileysfarm.com.

Other Attractions

Beers and Big Bear

34th Annual Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest celebrates good times

As the leaves begin to turn and the temperatures start to cool down, the sounds of German polkas and sing-a-longs fill the mountain air in Big Bear Lake. It is the 34th annual Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest, Southern California's most authentic German festival. For thirty-four years, Big Bear's Oktoberfest continues to entertain folks of all ages and interests with traditional Bavarian music, games, dancing and food.

"We've been showing folks a good time for more than thirty years," explained Hans Bandows, Oktoberfest's Burgermeister (Master of Ceremonies). "We have families who now have second and third generations celebrating with us. It's all about letting your hair down and escaping from the everyday. When you leave with a smile on your face, we've done our job!"

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest began in 1970 when German immigrant, Hans Bandows, threw the first Oktoberfest in Big Bear. Bandows and his family had relocated to Big Bear from New York City. After their first year in Big Bear, the family decided it was time to throw a good old fashioned Oktoberfest to thank their new friends and clients. The townsfolk had such a good time, they asked Bandows to head up a community-wide event that has continued as Big Bear's largest special event for thirty-four years.

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest features the authentic good times of old Bavaria. The entertainment lineup this year includes the Appentaler Band, direct from Bavaria; a variety of German and Austrian dance groups; the annual Queen Stein Carrying contest; sing-a-longs, log sawing and stein holding contests, and the new Kinder Garten complete with a petting zoo and bounce house. Pleasure-seekers can take a stroll along the Budenstrasse (Avenue of the Booths) and shop for handmade arts, crafts and collectibles.

An Oktoberfest would not be complete without German beer and food. Big Bear's event proudly serves Lowenbrau Lager, Lowenbrau Oktoberfest and Lowenbrau Dark all imported direct from Munich, Germany. German meals include bratwurst, knockwurst, German potato salad and sauerkraut all made from original German recipes.

The festival takes place high in the San Bernardino mountains where the fall air is crisp and cool. A fall weekend in Big Bear Lake makes for a perfect weekend get-a-way from daily routines. R

Film Festival

Big Bear film festival showcases top talents

The Fifth Annual Big Bear Lake International Film Festival is coming together as a stimulating weekend for those interested in all aspects of films and filmmaking. The Festival traditionally honors outstanding members of the industry for their contributions and showcases emerging film talent and independent films. Its goal is to create a forum for the sharing of ideas and work for upcoming filmmakers and industry veterans.

At the Opening Night Gala at the Performing Arts Center on Friday, September 17th, the Festival will present award-winning cinematographer Laszlo Kovacs, ASC, with a Lifetime Achievement Award for Cinematography. Mr. Kovacs has an impressive list of credits, including My Best Friend's Wedding, Mask, Ghostbusters, Shampoo, Paper Moon, and Five Easy Pieces. His classic film Easy Rider will be screened during the festival, with an exhibition of custom motorcycles from Big Bear Choppers setting the mood. Mr. Kovacs will also host a Q&A session, discussing three of his films, on Saturday, September 18th.

On the evening of the 18th at the Performing Arts Center, award-winning actor Ron Perlman will accept the Acting Award of Excellence at the Festival's Wrap Party. Mr. Perlman's credits are a tribute to his diversity and scope as an actor, including Enemy at the Gate, Blade II, Star Trek: Nemesis, CBS's critically acclaimed Beauty and the Beast (in which he played the Beast), and this year's Hellboy.

"The talent and the creativity of the writers and filmmakers who are participating are inspiring to anyone interested in the arts! We invite the whole community to spend all or part of their weekend with us to see these amazing films and to celebrate the artists who have added so much enjoyment to our lives," Monika Skerbelis, Director of Programming, said.

Ticket prices are a real value for all Festival events and activities. Tickets for the semi-formal Opening Night Gala at the PAC, including a cocktail reception, the presentation of Mr. Kovacs' award, and a national premiere film screening are $25 each. The Wrap Party, with a barbeque dinner and the Filmmaker Awards Ceremony, also at the Performing Arts Center, is $40. The full day Movie Pass is $15, providing admission to unlimited films. General film screenings admission is only $5, to be purchased at the door. The Screenwriting Filmmaker Panel on Saturday morning is $15. Finally, there is an All Event Pass for the general public, with admission to all films and events for only $75.

Catch the fire at 'Ignite'

The Roosevelt Bowl in San Bernardino has become the home to one of the Inland Empire's most consistent youth outreach in years, with "Ignite" concerts going on for over 6 years.

The fire began to spark in 1998 at the Arrowhead Springs Bowl with music by Plankeye and Not For the Crowd. Since then the event has moved around a bit and finally found a home at the Roosevelt Bowl. Well known Christian artists such as All Together Separate, Skillet, Pillar, Grits, Jonah 33, KJ52 and others have been featured at Ignite concerts in years past. Last year, "Dove Award" winning male vocalist, Jeremy Camp, shot his live DVD at the event that has been distributed nationally and the Roosevelt Bowl can be seen on Jeremy's "In 24/7" release.

Hard Rock band Pillar also features clips of Ignite footage in their DVD released last year.

to young people of the Inland Empire. For the past few years Jason Dean has been the featured speaker. Dean has been involved with Inland Empire concerts for about 20 years and is the former host of Christian rock radio program Reality Rock, which aired for over 10 years on 89.1FM and 90.1FM. Reality Rock also promoted "Rock of Love" concerts at the Redlands Bowl and the University of Redlands' outdoor bowl in the late 80's and early 90's with artists such as the Altar Boys, Undercover, the Prayer Chain and many more.

"I believe there is hope for this generation of youth," Dean said. "And music is sort of a language that youth can relate to."

The message of faith, hope and love ring loud and clear at every Ignite concert. The 7th annual Ignite will be held on Saturday, October 2, featuring rap artists Sackcloth Fashion and Priesthood with alternative bands Smithfield and Sanctifide. A "Kid's Zone" will run in the late afternoon before the music begins with bounce houses, games and balloons to encourage families to come early and enjoy Perris Hill Park for the afternoon. Ignite will also incorporate a city-wide skateboard contest organized by local freestyler Justin Romero, who has traveled around the world with Dean bringing their message of hope to schools in Australia, New Zealand, Scotland and Hawaii. Skateboarders can register for the competition at Calvary Chapel San Bernardino, also known as the Red Barn. Prizes and trophies will be awarded to winners in between bands at the concert.

Culinary delights

'Taste of the Towns'

There's nothing like enjoying yourself while helping a good cause. In early October, local restaurants and the Arthritis Foundation come together to offer a culinary fundraiser that is just as pleasing to your palette as it is to your heart.

On Friday evening, October 8, Bishop Construction Services will present the 9th Annual "A Taste of the Towns." "Taste" offers you a chance to feast on "ample sample" portions of culinary delights and paired wines, brews and coffees. Food will be prepared and served by the Inland Empire's finest chefs, accompanied by the region's most decorated wines and beers. Held in the Main Street Pedestrian Mall, Downtown Riverside, this fundraising event celebrates the favorite foods and wines from in and around the Inland Empire at one location and at one price!

Guests can experience the various tastes from approximately 35 restaurants, wineries and breweries, while listening to live music. Bo Wintrow, "Frogman in the Morning" from KFRG Radio - 95.1 will serve as the emcee. Guests will also have the opportunity to bid on several silent auction prizes with all proceeds going to support the work of the Arthritis Foundation.

Proceeds from the event will directly benefit the efforts of the

Car lover's dream

A collage of beautiful hot rods, customs, classics, trucks, muscle cars, Corvettes, Vipers and Prowlers will surround 35 blocks of downtown San Bernardino during the 15th Annual Stater Bros. Route 66 Rendezvous, presented by Firestone, September 16-19.

Car enthusiasts flock to the Rendezvous during these four days to check out the vehicles, live entertainment, contests, and shop the hundreds of vendors who line the streets along with nationally recognized automotive companies exhibiting parts and technology to car buffs young and old.

The event kicks off on Thursday evening with the Neon Light Cruise and Contest lighting up the downtown streets with cool cars glowing, sparkling and competing with the moon. The Firestone Burnout & Flame Throwing Contest on Friday evening at the Orange Show Speedway is another Route 66 attention grabber. Thousands of spectators cheer on the contestants as they squeal tires, burn rubber and send up a wall of smoke to see who can do the best burnout performance.

The flame throwing contest is another must-see, with flames jetting out of the tailpipes. The Firestone's grand finale stars a celebrity in the truck world: the famous monster truck, "Big Foot", which will crush and jump vehicles to the crowd's delight.

Roaring engines will echo off the buildings during Saturday's Open Header Cruise and Contest. Hot cars, entertainment, cool contests, and a nostalgic atmosphere is what the Rendezvous is all about.

Admission is free.

Blondie progressive slots reach 200th jackpot milestone

Bally Gaming and Systems, a leader in slots, video machines and casino management software for the global gaming industry, announced that its Blondie slots on the Thrillions progressive link recorded their 200th consecutive jackpot. The milestone occurred at the River Rock Casino in Geyserville, Calif., on Tuesday, Aug. 10.

The lucky slot player, who wishes to remain anonymous, hit the historic 200th jackpot for $27,383.86 on a 25-cent Dagwood's Big Bonus slot. Dagwood takes center stage in this reel-spinning game that is one in the series of Blondie games on separate wide-area progressive systems that can be found in Nevada, Mississippi, New Jersey and Native American casinos throughout the country.

In just the last six weeks, Blondie slots have paid out a whopping $260,791.48 in jackpots to winners from coast to coast. This parade of jackpots began on the Fourth of July with a $36,332.62 Blondie jackpot at the Soaring Eagle Casino in Mount Pleasant, Mich. This was followed on July 6 with a $27,998.83 jackpot at River Rock and on July 31 with a $53,226.45 jackpot at the Pechanga Casino in Temecula, Calif.

On Aug. 5, Blondie slots hit again, this time for $31,123.51 at the Soboba Casino in San Jacinto, Calif. Then, on Aug. 8, a lucky winner hit the jackpot for $54,860.91 on a Blondie slot at the Showboat Casino in Atlantic City, N.J. The 199th Blondie jackpot occurred on Aug. 9 again at the Soboba Casino with a lucky patron winning a $29,865.30 progressive award on the popular gaming machines.

To date, Blondie slots have paid out $8,913,752.23 in rapid-hit progressive jackpots nationally. Total jackpots on the Native American link amount to $3,324,861.90. On the New Jersey link, Blondie jackpots have amassed $2,654,333.25 in winnings. In Nevada, Blondie slots have generously paid out $1,971,778.37. And in Mississippi, Blondie slots have awarded $962,778.71 to lucky winners.

Introduce your little one to theater with a production that is sure to delight. The Grove Theatre, in historic downtown Upland, produces excellent adult plays and musicals, but they also have a program with children in mind. August wrapped up their production of The Princess and the Magic Pea, a delightful fairy tale. "The Little Witch of Wichita" will be held on October Saturdays (Oct. 9-30) at 2pm. Contact the Grove for future productions by calling (909) 920-4343 or visiting their website at www.grovetheatre.com.

Ally Pigeon seems stunned to meet the King, played by Gary LaRue, after a production of "The Princess and the Magic Pea." Ally gave the play a rave review.

Preparations underway for 14th Annual Winter Fantasy in Laguna Beach

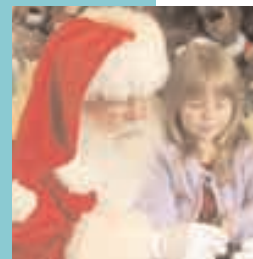

The thermometer outside may still say summer, but organizers of the Sawdust Art Festival's Winter Fantasy have a cooler time of year on their minds. While the famed summer Sawdust Art Festival is still underway, elaborate plans for transforming the 3-acre canyon-side venue from a summertime art oasis into a winter wonderland are well underway.

Event organizer Lynne Powell said, "Each year, we begin planning the Winter Fantasy earlier and earlier as we add new attractions to the show. With over 170, artists, a real snow field, lifesized gingerbread house and a few new ideas up our sleeves, the Winter Fantasy Committee of Sawdust staff and volunteers have got a great deal to plan in a very short time."

In addition to the fine art and seasonal crafts for sale, there are plenty of fun activities to get everyone in the holiday spirit. Make a gift for a loved one or yourself at the Ceramics Booth, where patrons receive one-on-one instruction at the ceramics wheel. Children can create works of art at the Children's Art Space, which offers rotating craft projects geared to 4-10 year olds. And don't forget to stop by the Multi Media Art Booth, which features hands-on workshops in printmaking, silk painting, oil painting and many other fine arts. All art projects are complimentary.

The 2004 Winter Fantasy runs for four weekends: November 20 & 21; November 26, 27 & 28, December 4 & 5 and December 11 & 12; hours are 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. each day. Admission prices are $4.50 for a one-day adult admission, $2 for children 6 - 12 and Free for children 5 and younger. A season pass is available for $5. For additional information, please visit www.SawdustArtFestival.org or call 949-494-3030.

GETTING HEALTHY

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following are letters in our ongoing series of weight-loss success stories.

"What a blessing Curves is. I prayed for an answer in dealing with my obesity and resulting health problems - and there you were. Today I ran up and down the sidelines (pain free) at my granddaughter's soccer game, cheering the team. A year ago I couldn't have done that."

Sandra

Sandra has been a member at Upland Curves, 96 W. Foothill Blvd. (909-608-7666), since Nov. 11, 2002. She joined the weight loss class in Jan., 2003 and has lost 85 lbs., 72.5" and gone from a size 22 to a size 10.

"At my heaviest, I weighed 267 pounds, I wore a size 24 dress, and I was very unhappy. That was January 2003. Fast forward to August 2004. I now weigh 176 pounds and I wear a size 10 dress and am probably the happiest I've ever been. How did I do it? Curves For Women - plus a lot of hard work, sweat and determination."

Sarah Fritsche

Sarah is a member of Curves For Women at 5225 Canyon Crest Dr. #400 in Riverside at the Canyon Crest Towne Center; (951) 684-1076.

"A couple of years after turning 50, I started experiencing the aches and pains of stiff and swollen joints probably brought on by inactivity and bad eating habits. It may have taken a low point in my life to get me to Curves, but I am better for it because in the three months since I joined I have lost 18.5 pounds and 20.5 inches. The exercises and weight loss seem to have helped my joints. I don't suffer from the little aches and pains anymore."

Mary Jo Moore

Mary is a member of Curves at 2955 Van Buren Blvd., Ste. E2, in Riverside, (951) 509-4878.

of meals for less than $10 that can feed up to four people during Tuesdays through Thursdays, and similarly priced meals throughout the week.

For a nice adult beverage special, stop by Sassy Sue's River Bar during the month of September for a bucket of Budweiser for only $4.

The Pioneer also offers good gambling specials and tournaments, a good reason to get your club card. Every Tuesday through Thursday, from 10am to 6pm, you can join in the Nothin to Lose FREE Video Poker Tournament. You'll need a club card and have at least 100 earned bonus points in the last month of play. You can get a card at the Bounty Hunter Round Up Club.

The Pioneer will also give you gifts to play for. For every 6,000 Bonus Points earned on your card during the month you get to pick a gift from their Gift of the Month selection.

The Pioneer also offers motel style parking where you park in front of your room without having to trudge through the casino.
