THE INLAND EMPIRE'S LARGEST THEME PARK & HAUNTED HOUSE!

Getting spooky

October is here and along with the cooler weather comes the usual host of ghouls and goblins. Admit it, Halloween is just as much fun for adults as it is for kids.

We take a look at all the chilling events taking place this month with a roundup on page 6.

Don't forget to pick up your perfect pumpkin for that scary night. While you're choosing one, you might as well have a good time. On page 8, we review Live Oak Canyon, a pumpkin patch that's more than just a field of melons.

For something a little different, get on board the technological fast-track on page 9 for a high-energy trip into electronic gaming. GamePlex centers promise to transfer the arcades of old into tired relics.

Happy Halloween from IER!

Oreobe.com has thousands of products to choose from, for gifts or for yourself. They also offer a reminder service so you can receive e-mail notification a few weeks before a special event, such as a wedding, anniversary or birthday.

Oreobe.com offers free shipping on orders over $49.99 and 25% off retail prices on all of their products.

Men, prepare to be 'Blitzed'

The 30-minute workout-for-women craze that has swept the nation from companies like Curves has finally found its way to men. The Blitz seeks to undo what years of fast food and remote controls have turned men into.

As a weight trainer and expert in personal fitness, The Blitz founder, Scott Smith, has designed and developed The Blitz machines, allowing for bi-directional resistance that creates the necessary load on muscle groups to burn a high amount of calories in a short period of time.

As a master instructor in martial arts, Smith has incorporated various punching, kicking and striking techniques against heavy bags into the workout as well, adding a high level of energy to the workout.

The result is a cross-training program that can be accomplished in only 20 minutes. Working The Blitz circuit 3 times a week can help tone muscles, lose weight, strengthen joints, improve circulation, reduce stress, increase self-esteem and improve overall well-being, leading to a higher quality of life.

The Blitz locations can be found in Ontario at 2435 S. Grove Avenue (909-947-2225), Chino Hills at 2587 Chino Hills Pkwy. #E (909-393-5899), with a Rancho Cucamonga location opening soon (909-477-6600).

Halloween Haunts

Becky Papp

Halloween brings out the kid in everyone. Five-year-olds and fifty-five-year olds crowd the costume shops and stand in line at the best haunted houses, looking for a little Halloween fun. You won't have to look far this year to find what you crave in spooky fun and entertainment.

Whether you want to dress-up as your current favorite movie character or super-hero or you aim to terrify with a gruesome getup, Spirit Halloween Superstores has the goods you need.

"Lord of the Rings, Matrix and The Hulk are really hot items at the moment," says Debra House, manager of the Spirit Halloween Superstore in Moreno Valley. "Whatever you see in the movies people are after, as well as the standard gory stuff."

The Moreno Valley Spirit store is located at 12125 Day Street and will be open until Oct. 31.

Are you looking for a unique costume for Halloween? Check out DragonMarsh on the Pedestrian Walking Mall in Downtown Riverside. They carry authentic historical costumes from the Renaissance, Medieval and Victorian eras. You might also find some Western or Fantasy/SciFi costumes as well.

DragonMarsh also carries Halloween themed fabric and accessories, so you can assemble your own, custom costume.

See the "Dragon" come alive at DragonMarsh on Oct. 24-25 as part of the Riverside Ghost Walk tour.

DragonMarsh is located at 3744 Main St. in Riverside, (909) 276-1116.

Once you have dressed your fairy princess, Spiderman or ghost you have to show them off! Local events offer something for everyone from the hardcore thrill-seeker to those who like to celebrate the season more quietly.

Have a safe and spooktacular Halloween!

Get into costume this Halloween

Get some recognition for your cool, costume creation this Halloween by jumping into a contest. Wherever you live in the Inland Empire, there's sure to be one close by:

Augustine Casino in Coachella: The casino is hosting a costume party Halloween night with a 1st place prize of $200, 2nd place prize of $100 and 3rd place prize of $50. (Guests are not permitted to wear masks or facial makeup that alters the natural appearance.) The contest is part of Augustine's "Monster and Money Giveaway." (888)-PLAY-TO-WIN.

Cahuilla Creek Casino in Anza: The Anza casino is hosting a Halloween bash, complete with costume party with a cash prize for the best dressed. (909) 763-1200.

Brandin' Iron in San Bernardino: Cash prizes will go to the best costumes at the Brandin' Iron Saloon in San Bernardino on Friday, Oct. 31, with $500 to the first place winner, $300 to second place, and $200 for third. Open from 7 pm to 3 am, at the Brandin' Iron, 320 W. E St., will also feature 50¢ draft beer from 7-9 pm, with $2 well drinks until 11 pm. Other attractions include a mechanical bull and a hot new country band.

Latte Dah Espresso: Located at 12220 Pigeon Pass Rd., #H, in Moreno Valley, this cozy coffee house will host a Halloween costume contest Oct. 31 in addition to music from young guitar prodigy Chaz Knapp. (909) 601-9969.

More than a pumpkin patch

Looking for that perfect pumpkin? Check out the Pumpkin Patch at Live Oak Canyon Christmas Tree Farm in Yucaipa. With at least a dozen different varieties of pumpkins to choose from, you're sure to find just the one to frighten/brighten up your Halloween. Plus, you have your choice of either selecting one from the pre-picked display areas or going out into the patch and pulling one right off the vine.

While hunting for that special pumpkin, you can also enjoy free hayrides, live entertainment, food, a gift tent, rides, and a new petting zoo, a real favorite of the little ones, where they can feed the goats and sheep right from their hands. These farm animals are always happy to see a youngster with a treat. Also new this year is a chicken coop with baby chicks, and the baby llama should be born just in time for pumpkin season. Plus mini-donkeys, bunnies and baby piglets are all part of the petting zoo.

And even more fun for the kids is found at the famous hay castle, where the slide and bounce area has some surprises this year. The capacity of the very popular Quad Ride has been doubled. Every weekend there will be a Rock Climbing Wall, plus pony rides. So much to do that you may find yourself coming back for more!

And don't miss the Gift Tent, where you'll find everything you'll need to decorate this fall season. Don't forget to pick up a few mini pumpkins and Indian corn to add some color. The Gift Tent also carries toys and all types of carving tools.

Open daily, now through October 31, the Pumpkin Patch is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and is located at 32335 Live Oak Canyon Road, on the corner of Freeway 10 and Live Oak Canyon Road, Redlands or call (909) 795-TREE (8733) for information and directions or visit www.liveoakcanyon.com.

(Don't forget, Live Oak Canyon Ranch is also headquarters for the best in Christmas Trees, the largest selection in the Inland Empire! — coming soon.)

An Evening of Fine Dining

There's never been a more delicious way to assist a charity than Riverside's "A Taste of the Towns," October 10, presented by Bishop Construction Services. Come and feast on "ample sample" portions of culinary delights and paired wines, brews and coffees as the Arthritis Foundation hosts its eighth annual fundraiser.

Food will be prepared and served by the Inland Empire's finest chefs, accompanied by the region's most decorated wines and beers. Held in the Main Street Pedestrian Mall, Downtown Riverside, this fundraising event celebrates the favorite foods and wines from in and around the Inland Empire at one location and at one price!

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. guests of "A Taste of the Towns" will be able to experience the various tastes from approximately 35 restaurants, wineries and breweries, while listening to live music sponsored

Rods and Cycles hit desert in 'Heat'

Hundreds of motorcycles and dozens of hot rods will thunder into downtown Palm Springs during "American Heat" Motorcycle and Hot Rod Auction Weekend, Oct. 17-19, 2003, for the hottest time on wheels.

Hot rods, street rods and motorcycles will strut their stuff and hot bands will perform on multiple stages along five blocks of Palm Canyon Drive in downtown Palm Springs, which will be transformed into "American Heat" central.

Ride-in Shows and Show 'n Shines provide the perfect opportunity for participants to display their wheels.

More than 100 vendors will present their wares in Chrome Alley. Shoppers will be able to find everything from new leathers and chrome accessories to a new carburetor from morning until night on both Saturday and Sunday.

American Heat's poker run will take participants to places they've probably never seen before, even if they live in the area.

Live entertainment on multiple stages will feature singers and dancers direct from Las Vegas in a high-energy show that will knock your socks off.

Stunt shows, designed to amaze you, will leave you wondering if the thrill seekers are actually insane.

Bike games, fabulous food, secured 24-hour parking for both bikes and hot rods, and enough activity to keep your head spinning is what you'll find at "American Heat." The event marries a popular motorcycle event with a hot rod show on Palm Canyon Drive and street rod and collectable car and motorcycle auction at the Palm Springs Convention Center.

A $37.50 registration fee will allow enthusiasts to participate in all the action. It provides three days of special bike and hot rod parking free of charge, and allows for competition in Ride-in Shows and Show 'n Shines. The fee also includes an official t-shirt and event pin or dash plaque. To register, visit www.road-shows.com and download a registration form, or call (800) 200-4557.

Special Day Passes will be available for $10 each and will provide non-preferred parking daily.

Registration during the event and the place to pick up registration packets will be the Palm Springs Convention Center, 277 N. Avenida Caballeros, four blocks east of Palm Canyon Drive. ☐

Catch the 'Horror' Live

Performance Riverside, the Inland Empire's own nationally recognized professional theatre, is set to open the outrageous cult phenomenon The Rocky Horror Show on October 31. One of the longest running shows in London theatre history, the musical sensation became a huge hit on the midnight movie circuit after its cinematic debut.

Featuring one of the catchiest scores in musical theatre history, The Rocky Horror Show is an unforgettable assemblage of the most stereotyped "B" science fiction movies, Frankie Avalon and Annette Funicello outings and nearly every rock and roll vintage. Conceived and written by Richard O'Brien, the show centers around the naïve and newly engaged Brad and Janet, who seek refuge from a storm and end up in the asylum-like castle of Dr. Frank 'n' Furter.

The Rocky Horror Show is filled with some of the most bizarre and hilarious characters in any production one is likely to see. From the gender-bending Frank 'n' Furter to his hunchbacked assistant and his demented sister, this is a musical theatre experience which makes the show's popularity easy to understand.

Eric Anderson stars as the over-the-top Frank 'n' Furter. His previous Performance Riverside credits include Pontius Pilate in Jesus Christ Superstar, Bill Sykes in Oliver! and Chauvelin in The Scarlet Pimpernel. Other work includes his recent Ovation nominated performance as Tateh in South Bay Civic Light Opera's Ragtime and Richard Nixon in Judy's Scary Little Christmas at the Victory Theatre in Burbank. The show is directed and choreographed by John Vaughan, whom audiences may remember as having staged Big River, Oliver! and Camelot, among others.

This production is the first professional mounting of the show in Southern California since its revival at the Tiffany Theatre in Hollywood several years ago. Please note that due to mature subject matter and language, parental guidance is suggested. [P]

WHEN: Oct. 31, Nov. 1, 7, 8, 14, 15, 8 pm; Nov. 2, 8, 16, 2 pm; Oct. 30, 10 pm; Nov. 14, midnight.
WHERE: Landis Auditorium, Riverside Community College, 4800 Magnolia Ave., in Riverside.
PRICE: $24, $27, $32.

Club 316 for singles

If you are a single adult who is tired of the bar scene then you have to check out Club 316.

Club 316 is the Inland Empire's largest, no alcohol nightclub that caters to today's adult singles wanting a safer and healthier social life. Club 316 is the brainchild of the singles at Crossroads Christian Church in Corona who were frustrated because all of the really great nightclubs that served fantastic music and dancing experiences also served alcohol. They were also tired of "churchy" dances that served punch and cookies in some gym with lame music. So they set out seven years ago to create a nightclub that rivals any in the Inland Empire and they succeeded.

Club 316 offers a true nightclub experience to over 400 single adults in the worship center of one of the largest churches in the area. They did this by providing a huge 2500 square foot dance floor with professional disco and show lighting, three DJ's that play a mix of Rock, Christian, and Country music, with free dance lessons thrown in an hour before the dance begins. Oh, by the way, there is a full non-alcohol beverage bar too.

Club 316 opens its doors only one time per month; the next club date is Saturday, October 18 when they will open at 7 pm with free dance lessons with the dance beginning at 8 pm and going until midnight. There is a theme for the October Club 316 – "Retro Nite" – just come in any 60's, 70's, or 80's costume (nothing from the street side or the dark side).

Cover is $10 at the door, which includes admission to the club, dance lessons and appetizers.

The Club is held at Crossroads Church on 2331 Kellogg Avenue in Corona. For more information, call (909) 520-3042.
