Collective Soul performs at Fantasy

A band of musicians headed by brothers, Ed and Dean Roland, exploded out of the small town of Stockbridge, Georgia to become one of the most popular rock groups of the mid 90's. To celebrate the recent release of their latest effort, "Afterwords," Collective Soul makes their desert debut at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino's Special Events Center on Saturday, May 17 at 8pm.

One of rock radio's favorite groups, Collective Soul has charted fifteen Top 20 Hits and seven #1 songs on the Billboard Mainstream Rock chart since their career began in 1994. Of their #1 hits, "Heavy" from their "Dosage" CD spent 14 weeks in the top position followed by "Shine," which held the leading slot for 8 weeks.

Known for their guitar driven style, Collective Soul continues to thrive by writing good, solid songs and taking them to the people. The current line-up features Ed and Dean Roland, guitarist Joel Kosche, bassist Will Turpin and drummer Ryan Hoyle.

Tickets for this one-night performance are available at the Fantasy Springs Resort Casino Box Office or by calling (760) 342-5000 or go online at www.tickets.com or www.fantasyspringsresort.com. Tickets are priced at $49, $39 and $29. IER

Crystal Gayle plays at Soboba Casino

Country legend Crystal Gayle will perform at AC's Lounge at Soboba Casino May 28 at 8pm. Gayle brings her signature style to the stage as she performs the hits that have made her a household name.

Gayle's musical boundaries seem limitless, as proven by her latest much anticipated project "All My Tomorrows," a mood influenced collection of American standards. Songs such as "Cry Me A River," "Sentimental Journey," "It Had To Be You," and "Smile" reach new heights when piped through the beautiful chords of Crystal Gayle.

"These are songs any artist loves to sing," Gayle said in a recent interview. "They've endured to become timeless."

In the mid 70's, Gayle was the focal point of her own one hour prime time special on CBS television, a special that earned the glowing praise of viewers and critics alike. Chic, hip, and cool with a romantic mane of hair that swept around her ankles, in one evening of television Crystal Gayle moved country music to the highest platform it had yet reached in the eyes of the viewing and listening nation.

The blue-eyed beauty from the Appalachian coal mining town of Paintsville, Kentucky would never again linger in the shadow of being Loretta Lynn's baby sister. Drop dead beautiful and dressed in designer threads, Crystal took country music to town on her arm in the 70's and introduced it to mainstream audiences.

The result was a career crossover that still produces beautiful results such as those captured in the grooves of "All My Tomorrows."

Like sister Loretta, Crystal too was a "coal miner's daughter" before she was a platinum selling singer and a world-class entertainer. While still in school, she signed her first recording contract. Her debut single, "I've Cried The Blue Right Out Of My Eyes," was written by Loretta (already a star) and reached the Top 20 on the national country music charts. Three more singles were released over the next three years, all making an impact with radio and listeners.

What next emerged was uniquely Crystal. Her warm, resonant vocal styling, individual as a fingerprint, captured the imagination and attention of audiences not usually tuned in and turned on by country music. There was an undeniable sophistication and a beguiling charm about her look and her voice that was a memorable imprint on every audience every listener.

Her first album project began a roll out of smash singles to come. By her fourth album, "We Must Believe In Magic," Crystal Gayle became the first female artist in country music history to achieve platinum album sales. Driving the engine of the album was the song that was to become her enduring career signature song to date: "Don't It Make My Brown Eyes Blue."

Legendary entertainer Jerry Lewis performs at Fantasy Springs

He's done it all... Writing, directing, producing and acting in TV and motion pictures; performing stand-up comedy routines, recording pop albums, singing and dancing on Broadway in addition to his humanitarian efforts. Now Fantasy Springs Resort Casino welcomes Jerry Lewis to the Special Events Center stage, Saturday May 31, at 8pm.

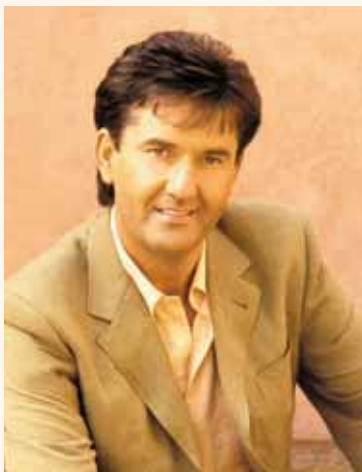

Lewis, born in Newark, NJ in 1926, was destined for show business as his parents Danny and Rae Lewis were entertainers. By age 15, he was performing his popular "Record Act," where he silently mouthed the words to opera and pop songs of the day. This caught the eye of comedian Irving Kaye who decided he would mentor the young comic and help Jerry get work.

In 1946, Jerry met and partnered with crooner Dean Martin. They became the most successful comedy team in nightclubs and film until they parted ways in 1956. During the 1960's, Jerry recorded a hit song "Rock-A-Bye Your Baby with a Dixie Melody," opened his own production company, Jerry Lewis Productions, and began writing, directing and starring in such film as "The Big Mouth," "Don't Raise the Bridge, Lower the River" and "Which Way to the Front."

As the 70's came to a close, Jerry received the Nobel Peace Prize for his humanitarian efforts to end Muscular Dystrophy, a cause he has championed since 1949. Jerry has received other honors including the Medal for Distinguished Public Service in 1985 and a Doctorate of Humane Letters Degree from Mercy College in Westchester, NY in 1987.

Jerry's performance at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino on May 31st will be his only Southern California appearance. Tickets for this special one-night performance are on sale at the Fantasy Springs Resort Casino Box Office or by calling (760) 342-5000. Tickets can be purchased on-line at www.tickets.com or www.fantasyspringsresort.com. Tickets are priced at $89, $79 and $59.

Daniel O'Donnell at Fantasy

Irish singer Daniel O'Donnell brings his special blend of musical entertainment to Fantasy Springs Resort Casino's Special Events Center, Friday, May 16, at 8pm. Tickets for this one-night performance are on sale at the Fantasy Springs Resort Casino Box Office or by calling (760) 342-5000. Tickets can be purchased online at www.tickets.com or www.fantasyspringsresort.com. Tickets are priced at $85, $65 and $45. The concert is presented by KVCR-TV.

Orange Show goes nostalgic with family fun

The 93rd Annual National Orange Show Festival is bringing guests back to an era of nostalgia. With the theme, "The Way We Were," the 2008 festival will feature all the things San Bernardino has come to enjoy with the addition of some events most refer to as memories.

The National Orange Show Festival has been entertaining Southern California since 1911 and this year's festival will be packed with entertainment. As always, attendees will find a carnival, cultural music, shopping, pig races, K-9 shows, livestock, art, great food and four tons of oranges.

The festival offers a wide range of entertainment, from the circus to tribute bands, the Memorial Day races and the Miss National Orange Show Pageant.

Taking place over Memorial Day Weekend, the National Orange Show Festival makes for great family fare. Opening Day is Thursday, May 22 and it runs through Monday, May 26.

Wednesday night kicks off the Festival with its annual Juried Art Exhibition. This year the Redlands Art Association has added an area dedicated to children's art.

The winner of the Miss National Orange Show Pageant and her court have the opportunity to win cash prizes. The winner will be automatically selected to compete in the Miss San Bernardino County Scholarship Pageant the following year and will get a chance at becoming Miss California/Miss America.

"We are very excited about this year's theme, 'The Way We Were.'" National Orange Show General Manager Dan Jimenez said. "It is a great feeling to try and reestablish the old tradition of the festival. With citrus exhibits, participation from the schools, and community involvement, it's our goal to make this a safe place for families to come and enjoy the fair."

The fair is a great deal for family entertainment. On Thursday, admission is free. Friday through Monday, admission is $8 for adults (13 and older), $5 for senior citizens, children (6-12) and military. Children five and under are free all weekend. Carnival wristbands are $10, allowing guests to ride all day long.

Gates open at 4pm on Thursday. Friday's

Among its many attractions, the National Orange Show features carnival rides with all-day passes available.

Sunshine Day is open at 9am. On Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the Festival will be open from 11am to 10pm.

Performance Riverside gets 'Thoroughly Modern'

Performance Riverside tops off its 2007-2008 season with Thoroughly Modern Millie, winner of six 2002 Tony Awards, including Best Musical, with music by Jeanine Tesori, lyrics by Dick Scanlon, and book by Richard Morris and Dick Scanlon.

The production is directed and choreographed by John Vaughan. Musical director is Scott T. Smith. Performances will be at Landis Performing Arts Center on the campus of Riverside City College, June 6-15.

Thoroughly Modern Millie is a rip-roaring romp set in the "Roaring '20s," based on the 1967 smash movie comedy. It revolves around Millie Dillmount, who escapes to New York City from Salina, Kansas determined to marry her wealthy boss - whoever he may be. Shedding her country girl image for the modern look of a "flapper," she takes a room at the Priscilla Hotel for Women and gets a job as a stenographer at the Sincere Trust Insurance Company. In short time, she finds herself involved with Jimmy Smith, an apparently ne'er-do-well paper clip salesman, Miss Dorothy Brown, a genteel aspiring actress who never seems to have spare change, Trevor Graydon, her no-nonsense boss, and Muzzy van Hossmere, a madcap Manhattan heiress with a zest for the high life.

The Landis Performing Arts Center is located on the Riverside City College campus at 4800 Magnolia Avenue. Performances for Thoroughly Modern Millie are June 6, 7, 13, and 14 at 8pm, and June 7, 8, 14, and 15 at 2pm. Tickets are $24, $29, $36, and $42. A specially priced "Discovery Theatre" performance for school and senior groups is also available on June 6 at 10 am.

For more information and to purchase tickets contact the Landis Box Office at 951-222-8100, or purchase online at www.performanceriverside.org.

SAN BERNARDINO SYMPHONY
 Celebrating 80 Glorious Years

The San Bernardino Symphony Debs & Red Tie Guys Celebrate 20 years

The San Bernardino Symphony Debs and Red Tie Guys is a unique, one-of-a kind California regional high school music appreciation program sponsored by the San Bernardino Symphony Guild in conjunction with the San Bernardino Symphony Association and in cooperation with the Inland Empire High Schools.

Each Fall membership is open to sophomore, junior and senior high school students who are recommended by their school's teachers and staff, community patrons or former Debs and Red Tie Guys, who are then invited to participate in the program membership. Members usher and provide other back-stage services and represent their school and the San Bernardino Symphony to the educational community at large. They also assist the Guild with Afterglows following each concert, and receive many privileges of membership, including meeting guest artists and receiving free season concert tickets for themselves with a bonus ticket for a family member or friend, plus a community service certificate at the end of each season. No musical background is required to participate in this fun and rewarding fine arts program.

The program teaches concert and social etiquette at the beginning of each season through an informal but mandatory training session and stresses the importance of music appreciation through casual 'talks' with our orchestra's music director and conductor. Prior to each concert Maestro Carlo Ponti, Jr. speaks privately to the Debs/Red Tie Guys about the concert, composers and guest artists.

At the last concert, the Debs and Red Tie Guys president presents a surprise "Guild Rose" on stage to a deserving musician who has demonstrated exceptional qualities during the season that are above and beyond his/her musical excellence.

The successful program was conceived and founded 20 years ago for the 1987-88 Season by June Durr, Symphony Guild and Board Member and former Utah Symphony Deb, as a younger audience development tool for the Symphony. Originally designed as a girl's debutante program, the boys/gentleman counterparts were added in the 1990's by popular request. It was intended to be a continuation of the Symphony Guild's

"Music in the Schools" elementary school program and the Symphony's outreach to college students.

"Over 600 students have participated in this special program over the 20 years, and their seeds of music appreciation have expanded and have gone with them all over the United States through college and their professional careers as a cultural added value from our wonderful Symphony orchestra and family. We even have successful alumni coming back now to coordinate the program for its future success," said June Durr, Founder, who gives special thanks to original program supporters Evelyn Hill, Brenda Bean, Rosemary Davis, Kathy Serembe, John and Heather Gates, Michael and Michele Tacchia, Diana Sanders, Dara Tetreau, Danae Tetreau-Rabelo, Jamie Mattison, Bud Coffey, Earleen and Donald Dudley, Donna Uhl, Mary Schnepf, Judy Brewer and especially my daughter, Jill Durr Shively, without whose initial assistance, candidate referrals and support this program would not have happened! Bravo!

For information on the Fall 2008-09 Symphony Debs & Red Tie Guys membership and training, call Jamie Mattison, (951) 601-9735.

Community Players announce 84th season

Riverside Community Players, one of the oldest continuously active community theatre groups in the United States, has announced an intriguing line-up of shows for its 84th season, and theatre patrons are sure to enjoy an exciting and "well-rounded" season of comedy, mystery, drama, as well as a rousing musical comedy finale in Kiss Me Kate.

"We have compiled a season that has something for everyone to enjoy. We are bringing back our audience's favorite author, Agatha Christie, but we also are presenting two Pulitzer Prize winning works and several Tony Award nominees and winners," RCP Board Member Jennifer Lawson said. In the interest of exposing local audiences to lesser-known but important works, the Community Players will present at least two productions that are Inland Empire premieres.

To begin the new season with gusto, RCP will present a high-energy production of Ken Ludwig's Leading Ladies in September. This hilarious comedy centers on two down-on-their-luck actors who hear about a rich old lady who is dying and planning to leave her fortune to her two long-lost nephews. They resolve to pass themselves off as her beloved relatives and get the cash. However, when they arrive at the old lady's estate, they discover that the relatives aren't nephews, but nieces. Romantic entanglements and mistaken identities abound in this fast-paced farce.

In November, the Players will present On Golden Pond by Ernest Thompson. This beloved story was brought to the big screen and starred Katherine Hepburn, Henry Fonda and Jane Fonda. It is a touching, funny and warmly perceptive study of a spirited and lovable elderly couple facing their twilight years.

RCP's January offering is the 2003 Pulitzer Prize-winning and Tony Award-nominated play Anna in the Tropics. Set in 1929, Nilo Cruz tells the dramatic and romantic story of a family of cigar workers whose lives are irrevocably changed by the arrival of a new lector. As he reads Anna Karenina to the workers, the spirit of Tolstoy's novel affects them all. With each chapter, new desires and jealousies erupt in the factory.

Agatha Christie's The Hollow, based on her 1946 book of the same

The classic musical Kismet opens at Candlelight Pavilion

The classic musical Kismet will open at the Candlelight Pavilion on May 31 and will run through July 26. "This lavish production is an eye-candy spectacle with colorful Arabian costumes and extravagant sets," Artistic Director Mindy Teuber said.

Kismet is another word for fate and that is exactly what this musical is about. Neither Aladdin nor Ali Baba ever had a day like Hajj the beggar! In the span of twenty-four hours, Hajj manages to escape the clutches of a vengeful bandit, drown the evil Wazir of Police, catch the eye of the Wazir's voluptuous wife, serve as Emir of Baghdad, and see his daughter wed to the handsome Caliph. The lush score adapted from the soaring melodies of Alexander Borodin feature memorable tunes including "Stranger in Paradise," "Baubles, Bangles, and Beads" and "Sands of Time."

Kismet won three Tony Awards in 1954 including "Best Musical." A year later the show was turned into a popular MGM film starring Howard Keel, Ann Blyth, Delores Gray, and Vic Damone.

The Candlelight Pavilion production will be directed by the accomplished Chuck Ketter, musically directed by Julie Lamoureux and choreographed by Rikki Lugo. Kismet will run Thursdays through Sundays. Doors open at 6pm Thursday through Saturday evenings, at 5pm on Sunday evenings and at 11am for Saturday and Sunday matinees.

For more information or reservations call the box office at (909) 626-1254 ext.1 or visit www.candlelightpavilion.com. The Candlelight Pavilion is located at 455 W. Foothill Blvd. in Claremont.

Live at White Park Concert Series will feature Reggae, Blues, R&B and Jazz Artists

By Natasha Ferguson

The weather is hot and so is the entertainment at White Park. Live at White Park concert series is a free community event featuring live entertainment at the beautiful White Park, located at 3901 Market St. in downtown Riverside. The concert series features live performances by some of the hottest local music groups in the Inland Empire.

The first concert in the series kicks off on May 18 from 1:30 to 3:30pm featuring reggae band "Beyond Rhythm." This six-piece band has shared the stage with international giants such as Inner Circle, Elephant Man, Frankie Paul and more. Their music is soulful and uplifting with influences from all styles of reggae music with a conscious roots message. Beyond Rhythm has recorded with music legends Boom Shakka and Ray Manzerac of the Doors.

To see and hear Beyond Rhythm, go to www.youtube.com and search for Beyond Rhythm, or visit www.myspace.com/beyondrhythm.

This reggae concert is sponsored in part by Word of Mouth Reggae Store located at 3976 Market St. in downtown Riverside (www.wordofmouthreggae.com).

Blues lovers get ready to sway to the soul-stirring sounds of "The Blue Falcons" on Sunday June 8 from 1:30 to 3:30pm as the White Park Sunday Music Series continues. The Blue Falcons have been performing together since 1991 and have performed with the likes of W.C. Clark, Duke Robillard, Curtis Salgado, Rod Piazza and The Might Flyers and others. They've played at local venues such as Lake Alice, Mission Tobacco Lounge and Carlos O'Briens in Riverside, as well as the annual Route 66 Rendezvous event in San Bernardino. In addition, this popular band has also been featured in other cities at popular spots such as; House of Blues in Hollywood, the Coach House in San Juan Capistrano, and the Galaxy Theatre in Santa Ana. Members include Doc Ryan on lead guitar and vocals, Brett Miller on keyboards and vocals James Mahan on guitar and vocals, Joshua Cortz on bass and vocals, and Ryan Williams on drums.

Live at White Park Sunday Music Series presents "A Little On The Side" on June 22. Their music has a soulful rhythm and blues beat with a touch of jazz. Their musical influences include Earth Wind & Fire, Grover Washington Jr., Carol King and Marvin Gaye. The group founders are Carol Scott, saxophonist and vocalist who is also manager of the Riverside Plaza, and Mel Bruner who is keyboardist and vocalist. Other members include Larry Wilburn on drums, Craig Williams on bass, Jerry Randolph on guitar, and percussionist Edwin Falcon. The band has performed at venues such as Mission Tobacco Lounge in downtown Riverside, the Riverside Plaza, various political fundraiser events and a host of clubs, private functions and casinos throughout the Inland Empire and surrounding areas. In addition, they are in rotation with other bands at Jillian's on the University City Walk in University City.

The Live at White Park Sunday Music Series is sponsored by Charter Communications who will be on location taping the events to air on its regional cable station, Channel 101.

Early arrival is strongly suggested and attendees can bring their own chair or blanket for the lawn. This is a family-friendly event and no alcohol is permitted in the park. After the concert, enjoy a delicious meal at one of the many dining choices in downtown Riverside.

The series will continue in the fall, dates are September 28 and October 12. The lineup will be announced at a later date.

The Live at White Park concert series is hosted by Riverside Downtown Partnership and the City of Riverside Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department.

For more information call (951) 341-6550 or visit www.RiversideDowntown.org.

Pass Chorale presents Messiah

A complete performance of Messiah by G.F. Handel will be presented by the Pass Chorale and Orchestra on Mother's Day, May 11, 2:30pm, at Our Savior's Lutheran Church, 1320 W. Williams St., in Banning.

It is rare to experience a complete performance, since most groups do only one or two of the three parts of this great oratorio. There is nothing like hearing this great work in its entirety.

Soloists are Camelia Voin and Clarissa Shan, sopranos, Carol Lisek, Alto, Andrew Crane, Tenor, and Terry Welborn, Bass. The Pass Chorale presents two major concerts per year, and have been rehearsing Messiah since January.

Experience the complete Messiah, from the opening Tenor solo, "Comfort Ye My People" to the closing "Amen" chorus.

Tickets are: Adults, $15; Seniors and Students, $10.

San Bernardino Symphony announces new season

The San Bernardino Symphony Association presents its 2008-2009 season. The celebration of their 80th anniversary will begin with a spectacular Season Opening Gala Dinner on Friday, October 3, 2008. Reserve early for this event which promises to be sold out.

For the first 80th season concert, Maestro Carlo Ponti, Jr. has chosen Weber's Oberon Overture, Dvorak's Violin Concerto in A minor and Bruckner's Symphony no.1, the latter being performed in memory of long-time Symphony Board member and supporter Frank Plash. The November 15, 2008 concert features internationally renown pianist Janina Fialkowska performing Mozart's Piano Concerto, no.27. A highlight of the 80th season is the January 18, 2009 Family Concert, which includes Saint-Saens Carnival of the Animals. In addition to conducting, Maestro Ponti will play the piano with his piano professor, Nancy Woods. His brother, Edoardo Ponti, will be narrator.

By popular demand, the symphony is bringing back Norman Krieger to play Brahms Piano Concerto, no.1 on March 21, 2009. The season finale on May 9, 2009 is Mahler's Fifth Symphony.

The San Bernardino Symphony is one of the few smaller orchestras in America to perform such demanding major works.

Season tickets are on sale now and can be purchased by contacting the Symphony office at (909) 381-5388 or online at www.sanbernardinosymphony.org. The Symphony also accepts donations as ticket sales cover only 30% of the costs of a concert. Start the season on a high note by purchasing an 80th anniversary musical note. Call the symphony office for more information.

'Air' brings dark comedy to Riverside Players

After garnering seven Inland Theatre League Awards at this year's ceremony, including an unprecedented five for his unique production of "Dracula," twenty-eight-year-old Adam Demerath is ready to tackle his next directing assignment. He will undoubtedly delight Riverside audiences with the Inland Empire premiere of Richard Dresser's dark comedy, "Something in the Air," which will run for three weekends, starting May 16, at the Riverside Community Players.

Although "Something in the Air" marks Demerath's directorial debut at the Players, he certainly is no stranger to Riverside's intimate theatre-in-the-round. Demerath gave award-winning performances in several RCP productions over the past few years, including Mozart in "Amadeus" and Evans in "Terra Nova."

"It has always been a treat having Adam in our productions. He brings such commitment and imagination to every role he plays. Having had the honor of working closely with him on a couple of shows, I know first-hand how he dives into a character. He really embodies the collaboorative spirit that it so important for a performing artist," RCP Board Member Jennifer Lawson said.

As his lengthy resume proves, Demerath is equally at home with intense dramas and outrageous comedies, and his current project, a dark comedy, is a perfect blend of the two genres. The story centers on Walker, a man who has hit rock bottom. Seeking help, he finds himself in the office of Neville, a man Walker believes is a psychoanalyst. However, Neville is actually a financial analyst who offers Walker a sure-fire investment: buying the life insurance policy of a dying man. It seems to be a diabolically brilliant plan. Just as things start looking up for him romantically and financially, Walker discovers that things are not always what they seem to be and that perhaps his get-rich quick scheme might not be as easy as he thought.

Much to Demerath's delight, he has assembled an amazingly talented cast of award-winning actors who hail from the local area and as far away as Apple Valley and Fullerton. As the two conspirators, Michael Truelock, who has been featured in many of the recent RCP productions, will take on the role of the desperate man, Walker, and Lance Todd Christiansen, who won ITL Awards for previous RCP efforts (directing "Funny Money" and acting in "Terra Nova") plays the questionable financial analyst, Neville.

Tickets are available by phone now for what will surely be an enjoyable production.

For ticket reservations and season ticket information, call the Riverside Community Players' box office at (951) 686-4030. The box office also will be open for walk-up business starting on May 12, and will be open Monday-Saturday 6pm-8pm and Saturday and Sunday 12pm-2pm the week of the show. Tickets are $15. There will be no late seating, and no children under 5 years of age will be admitted.

The Riverside Community Playhouse is at 4026 14th Street in Riverside, between Magnolia and Brockton. On the day of the show, the hour prior to curtain time is reserved for business pertaining to that performance only. You may visit the RCP website at www.riversidecommunityplayers.com.

Feast at the hottest, coolest event of the summer

Enjoy chili? Cool cars? Hot music? If so, then you'll enjoy the 6th Annual Chili Cook-Off and Car/Motorcycle Show on Saturday, May 24. The event, hosted by the Arlington Business Partnership, takes place along Magnolia Avenue from Van Buren Boulevard to Jackson Street, and will run from 9:30am and end at 5pm.

This year's event will be bigger than ever, including a new community stage highlighting local Riverside bands.

"We feel it is important to showcase our local musicians," Judy Teunissen, 2008 Co-Chair, said "There is an abundance of young talent in this town and a large event like this is a perfect place for them to perform."

CUBO, the rockin' top-40's band (Riverside's own) is back again by popular demand and will play on the Main Stage.

In addition to a classic car show, the event features a motorcycle competition as well. Attendees will be able to vote for their favorite cars and cycles in a highly competitive awards contest.

The Chili Cook-Off will expand the KidZone this year to include more inflatables and interactive games for kids of all ages. Activities include a rock climbing wall, inflatable obstacle course, activity trailer, kiddie train, petting zoo and pony rides.

Event organizers are hoping to attract "little citizens" for the "Little Mr.

Hot Sauce" and "Little Miss Chili Peppers" contests. Children up to 12 years of age are welcome with prizes for winners and gifts for all participants. Parents may sign-up their children at the Main Stage the day of the event.

The event will also feature handcrafted arts and crafts, business booths, food booths, beer garden, wine bar and lots of chili prepared by the International Chili Society cooks who compete for international prizes. Community cooks will vie for cash prizes.

If you are a chili cook who loves to show off your chili then check out the People's Choice for the best Red Chili, Chili Verde and Salsa. Call the ABP office (951-509-1100) for an application and further details.

Every year the Arlington Business Partnership makes a financial contribution to two of local organizations, Boy Scout Troop 116 and the AssisTeens.

Admission is free with free parking (there is a nominal fee charged for chili tasting kits). For more information call (951) 509-1100 or email arlingtonchili@gmail.com.

Visitors From the Great Beyond

Their visits are predictable. Some have a celebrity status and their visits are a newsworthy event. We know them as Halley, West, Hale-Bopp and Hyakutake. They are around 4.6 billion years old. They carry information about the origination and evolution of our solar system in their head and tail. They are comets, and their orbital paths around the Sun are so vast that we are lucky to see some of them once in a lifetime.

What are comets, and where do they come from? Comets are often referred to as "dirty snowballs" because they have a solid nucleus of ice and debris. The nucleus is surrounded by a spherical cloud of gas and debris called a coma. As the comet orbits near the Sun, the solid particles of its nucleus heat up and the ice sublimates (turns to gas without first becoming liquid). The blurry, elongated tail that stretches out behind the comet usually has two parts. One part is made up of debris and the other is made up of ions.

Find out about the rest of the Solar System neighborhood at a SkyQuest Public Program. MSAS Astronomy Village has two scheduled for May. Topics are the following: "Today's Universe," May 10, and "Selecting the Right Telescope," May 24. The programs are from 7pm to 9pm and include an entertaining slide/lecture, question and answer period, laser tour of the night sky, and a visit to the Robert Brownlee Observatory, weather permitting.

For information and tickets, call (909) 336-1699 or visit their website at www.mountain-skies.org. The MSAS Astronomy Village is located just off State Hwy 18, west of Rim of the World High School. Turn in at the yellow overhead light and follow the signs.

MSAS is a non profit, public benefit corporation and is supported exclusively by private donations, program and gift shop revenues. MSAS is not affiliated or associated with any commercial business that attempts to replicate its presentations or programs.

A Golden Evening in the Rose Garden

The City of Riverside Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department, along with the Riverside Rose Society, is hosting a nostalgic event on Friday, May 9, at the Rose Garden of Fairmount Park, 2601 Fairmount Blvd., at 6pm. The event is held to raise funds to purchase a fountain in honor of the memory of the Riverside Rose Society founder, Zelda Lloyd, and will include the planting and dedication of roses to the garden, speakers, food and spirits, door prizes, music and vintage cars from the 50s, and more. The Golden Evening in the Rose Garden is part of a multitude of events being sponsored by the Society during the week of May 4 – 10 in celebration of its 50th Anniversary.

The cost of the event is $15.00 per person in advance. RSVP no later than May 1 to Kathy Swanson at (951) 640-9896. Tickets may also be purchased the evening of the event for $20. Visit www.riversiderose.org for details on the week's events.

On the following day, Saturday, May 10, also enjoy the "Golden Oldies Rose Show" in the Music Room of the Mission Inn, from Noon to 4pm. The event is free and open to the public, and both the President of the American Rose Society, Steve Jones, and the Executive Director, Jeffrey Ware of Shreveport, Louisiana, will be present.

Summer concerts at Lake Arrowhead Village

A little known secret in the mountains of San Bernardino is the free entertainment provided every weekend at the Lake Arrowhead Village, the largest and only free music venue in California. The new Center Stage features international, national, and regional acts that usually charge concert ticket prices in cities from Ventura to San Diego.

This year Center Stage presents 44 exceptional shows, every Friday, Saturday and Holiday evenings from May 2 through September 1, 2008. The concerts are festival seating, and run from 5:30pm to 8:30pm. Advance table reservations are available for tables of 10 at $125 (which includes 10 beverages), or tables for 4 at $75 (includes 4 beverages).

In addition to the beer, wine, water, sodas and food that are available at all concerts the village has numerous restaurants that feature a taste for every palate.

Opening night of the 2008 Summer Concert series is Friday, May 2, featuring The Beach Toys, a classic replication of the look, dress, and sound of the 1960's Beach Boys. B-Side Players are back performing a blend of Reggae, Latin and Soul, on Saturday, on May 3. Sunday, May 4 presents Son Oeste (translates to Song of the West), one of the few salsa orchestras comprised of musicians from all over Latin America.

Many new bands have been added this year, but back by popular demand are Hollywood Stones (Rolling Stones Tribute) May 25; The Answer (Classic Rock) May 26; Wild Child (Tribute to the Doors) May 31; among others.

The Village is located lakefront at the end of Highway 189, off Rim of the World Highway 18. Parking is free. Visit www.lakearrowheadvillage.com for more information. For concert table reservations call (909) 337-2533.

Hypnotist brings out laughs

Release your inhibitions, or at least watch someone else do it, and have a good time at the Comedy Hypnosis Show in Lake Arrowhead Village. The free event, at the Center Stage, takes place May 16 at 5:30pm.

Hypnotist De' Anna "the HypnoChick" is a woman with the energy of a rock star and a comedy hypnosis show that is jam packed with spontaneous laughs. Who knows, you may even end up as the star of the show.

De' Anna routinely performs for Fortune 500 corporations such as AFLAC and Mercury Insurance, travels overseas to bring laughter to U.S. Army and Marine Corps troops, and can be seen at public events throughout her annual nationwide summer tours.

Her comedy Hypnosis show has been a well received complement to many major entertainment events as she has shared the stage with headlining musical acts such as Tim McGraw and Toby Keith, and even diverse entertainers like Weird Al Yankovic.

De' Anna Nunez opened a Hypnotherapy office, Mind Design Global, in Lake Arrowhead Village in 2007, catering to the local community. Hypnosis workshops for quitting smoking and weight loss, as well as customized private hypnosis sessions, are her main focus.

This year the Lake Arrowhead Village Concert Series has been included into her comedy hypnosis show tour. "The show is hysterical and spontaneous. You never know how someone will react when they have no inhibitions," De' Anna said.

The HypnoChick comedy Hypnosis show is appropriate for people of all ages.

You can be a part of the excitement by either volunteering to be hypnotized or laughing from the audience at De'Anna's shows on May 16, July 11 and August 15 on the Center Stage at 5pm.

For more information call Mind Design Global at (909) 336-6900. See her ad on page 18.

'Summer Splash' offers a children's Biblical journey

Get excited to embark on a week long journey as you and your kids head for the Knight Crossing! Together you will ride through different Bible stories and meet characters like Squire Betteroff, Viggo the littlest knight, the castle building cousins, and the washer woman.

Through the theme "verse Romans 12:7-11," your kids will learn what it means to be humble, courageous, wise, honorable, and determined.

Summer Splash is at The Grove Community Church, July 7-11 from 9am to Noon. Summer Splash is for children ages 3 years to 6th grade (fall 2008). The cost is $25 per child through June 1, then $35 after. For more information call (951) 571-9090 x 2425 or visit www.kidsquest.cc.

The Grove is located at 19900 Grove Community Drive, in Riverside.

Walking for a Great Cause!

By Natasha Ferguson

Join teams of others on a walk to help raise awareness and funds for arthritis. The Inland Empire Arthritis Walk takes place Saturday June 7 at historic Fairmount Park in downtown Riverside.

The Arthritis Walk is a three mile walk that begins and ends at the bandshell. Walk registration begins at 8am followed by announcements at 9am and warm-up. The walk starts at 10am and takes about an hour to complete. Festivities include an expo at the finish of the arthritis walk, a kid zone with lots of children's activities including face painting, a jumper and more. There will also be live entertainment and health vendors. The walk is not just limited to humans, either. Your pooch can join and will be given bandanas to proudly wear. Refreshments and goody bags will be distributed to walkers. There is also an alternate route which is one mile for those who suffer with arthritis.

Arthritis is a disease that affects the joints and is widely misconceived to be a disease that affects only elderly people. However, this is far from true. Children as well as adults suffer from this crippling illness.

Each year, the Arthritis Walk honors a youth who suffers from arthritis. This year's youth honoree is a special young man, 11 year-old Bobby Hamilton. He was diagnosed with Systemic Juvenile Rheumatoid Arthritis at 9 years of age. He is currently in the 5th grade at Newman Elementary School in Chino. Like many kids his age, he once enjoyed sports activities such as basketball and baseball, but sadly went from shooting hoops to frequent visits to the doctor and inpatient hospital stays. The Arthritis Foundation became a beacon of light for young Bobby affording him the opportunity to meet other youths who suffer with similar crippling illnesses at youth camps such as Camp Esperanza and the Painted Turtle. The Arthritis Foundation gives hope for a cure and helps make life more manageable for him and other children who suffer from this terrible disease.

This year, the Arthritis Foundation has selected Dr. Babak Zamiri as its medical honoree. Dr. Zamiri is President and Medical Director of the Arthritis Medical Clinic, Osteoporosis Diagnostic Imaging and Treatment Center in Riverside. Dr. Zamiri is active in clinical care, research and teaching.

The Arthritis walk is an annual event that over 300 communities nationwide participate in starting in the month of May, which is National Arthritis Month. The goal of these walks is to fund arthritis research, health education and government advocacy initiatives in hopes of one day discovering a cure.

There are several ways you can participate. Your company or organization can form a team, you can register as an individual, or if you'd just like to make a contribution to this worthwhile cause you can do so by visiting www.arthritiswalkie.com. Raise $100 or more and earn an official Arthritis Walk t-shirt.

Redlands Youth Circus comes to town

The circus is coming to Redlands, at the YWCA, and your kids can get involved. The 2008 Great All-American Youth Circus show theme takes its inspiration from the Circus' own rich history. This year's performances will pay tribute to the unique tradition that the Circus has become for the town of Redlands, and the changing face of circus arts over the past several decades.

Founded in 1929 by YMCA Director Roy Coble, a former Ringling Brothers Barnum & Bailey performer, The Great All-American Youth Circus is a magnificent community tradition in Redlands. It is the largest and the longest-running community circuses in the world, and one of only a handful of programs like it in the United States. 2008 marks the 68th performing season and this year's cast totals over 275 people.

Performances are held at the Redlands Family YMCA in the Roy Coble Gymnasium. All proceeds from ticket sales benefit the Great All-American Youth Circus program.

Show dates are May 2, 9, 16 at 7pm, May 3, 10, 17 at 5pm, and May 4, 11, 18 at 3pm.

Tickets are on sale at the Redlands Family YMCA, at 500 East Citrus Avenue. Call (909) 798-9622 ext. 360 or visit www.ycircus.org for more information. Ticket prices are $15 for adults, $10 for kids ages 3-12, and children under 3 are free if they sit on a parent's lap.

There is no other after-school activity that can compare to the Great Y Circus experience.

"Circus is the best thing that's happened to me in a long time," 12-year-old Shannon Seheult said.

For more information about 2008 performances or how to get involved in the summer Circus classes, visit www.ycircus.org. You may also call (909) 798-9622 ext. 205 and ask for Youth Program Director, Melanie Ramiro.

2008 Grand Terrace Days Parade, Festival and Car Show

The City of Grand Terrace is holding its 2008 Grand Terrace Days Parade, Festival, and Car Show on Saturday, June 14. This event marks the city's 30th Anniversary and includes a parade and a car show, themed "Racing to the Finish Line."

The parade will feature race cars and classic cars from the Riverside International Auto Museum (RIAM) and entries from local car clubs. "We have several unique cars, not shown in any other local car show, that will be in the parade and on display," Bruce Ward, RIAM Museum Director, said. Several Maserati's, including a million-dollar MC-12, a 1965 Mistral Spyder convertible, and a Maserati once owned by the King of Spain, will be on display.

The Grand Marshal this year will be Gillian Zucker, President of the California Auto Club Speedway. The parade will begin at 9:30am on the corner of Barton Rd. and Canal St. and will continue east on Barton Rd. and turn south at Mt. Vernon Ave.

When the parade concludes, the festival will commence at 10am at the top field of Richard Rollins Community Park on DeBerry St. The festival will include live entertainment. A variety of food vendors, games and contests for the whole family, and even a honey tasting event sponsored by Miller Honey, that is unique to Grand Terrace's heritage.

The festival will also include a classic car show, which will be held on the middle field of Richard Rollins Community Park. The car show will feature everything from antique cars and hot rods to race cars. The car show will run from 10am to 2pm and award winners will be announced at 1:30 pm.

For more information visit www.cityofgrandterrace.org/events or call 909-430-2201.

name, will open in March of 2009. This intriguing but little known whodunit by the famous mystery writer focuses on The Hollow, the English country home of Sir Henry Angkatell, and the shady group of characters—relatives and romantic interests—who gather there for a weekend. An unhappy game of romantic 'follow the leader' exposes jealousies and then explodes into murder.

Continuing their tradition of presenting thought-provoking works, RCP will present David Lindsay-Abair's drama Rabbit Hole in May, 2009. Winner of the 2007 Pulitzer Prize, this brilliantly nuanced play is widely regarded as one of the best new plays written in the last 25 years. It is the story of the Corbetts who have everything a regular family could want...until the day their world is turned upside down. Teeming with heartbreak, compassion, wit and honesty, Rabbit Hole is a delicate piece of theatre about family relationships, loss and hope.

Ending the season on a rousing note, the Players will present Cole Porter's masterpiece of the musical theatre, Kiss Me Kate in July of 2009. The show looks in on a troupe of dysfunctional actors putting on a musical version of The Taming of the Shrew, starring two argumentative ex-spouses. Throw in a few gangsters trying to collect on an I.O.U., some flowers sent to the wrong lover, and a trio of suitors chasing the same gal, and the hilarity ensues. The show was Cole Porter's biggest hit, winning five Tony Awards, including the first Tony ever presented for Best Musical.

Discounted season tickets for all six shows are available in June for as little as $66 or $56 for senior citizens (62+). Tickets for the shows may be purchased individually for $15 each ($18 for Kiss Me Kate). The theatre is located at 4026 Fourteenth Street in Riverside. There is no late seating, and children under the age of five are not admitted. Show titles are subject to availability. Visit the RCP website at www.riversidecommunityplayers.org for more information. For ticket reservations and information, call the box office at (951) 686-4030.
