Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest Announces Entertainment Line-Up For 41st Annual Event

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest celebrates 41 years of German style family fun and good times this year. Rated Southern California's #1 Oktoberfest, this Fall's festival offers even more authentic German entertainment than in years past.

Back by popular demand, Die Mainfloesser Band from Germany and new this year, Die Trachten Verein Traunstoana, dance group from Austria, will entertain. Die Mainfloesser band stole the show during last year's Oktoberfest, performing a unique blend of traditional German, contemporary German and American music. The Trachten Verein Traunstoana dancers hail from Abtenau, Austria, Big Bear Lake's sister city, and perform traditional Austrian folk dances.

Big Bear's Oktoberfest kicks off with American's Hero weekend on Saturday, September 17, offering free admission for all past and present military and their immediate families, as well as firefighters and law enforcement. Opening festivities include a special tribute to all those who put their lives on the line protecting America's freedoms.

The Bürgermeister, his family and entourage offer non-stop entertainment, dancing and zany German antics exclusive to Big Bear's festival for six and a half weekends, Sept. 17 through Oct. 29. Other Oktoberfest fun includes carnival games, bounce houses, pony rides, Samson - the mechanical bull, and the Buden Strasse (Ave. of the Booths) which provides a variety of arts and crafts vendors. Festival-goers can participate in a variety of free contests including Beer Stein Holding, Log Sawing, Pretzel Eating and the Safe Slam (non-alcoholic beer) beer drinking contest.

The Big Bear Lake Oktoberfest provides an excuse to enjoy a weekend away from the stress and obligations of everyday life in a beautiful alpine setting. General admission is $14 for adults, $10 for seniors (65+), and $8 for children 3 years to 12 years on Saturdays; and $7 for adults, $5 for seniors with children 12 and under free on Sundays. For more details on packages and general information, log on to www.BigBearEvents.com or call (909) 585-3000. LER

Cal Poly Pomona holds 19th Annual Pumpkin Festival

Cal Poly Pomona's annual Pumpkin Festival has become a tradition for many families in the surrounding communities. Mark your calendar for Oct. 15-16, when thousands of visitors will descend upon the campus to pick pumpkins right out of the patch.

Other activities include an Insect Fair featuring nearly 500,000 live and preserved insects, a farmer's market, a corn maze, a petting zoo, horse rides, entertainment, a pancake breakfast on Saturday morning, and a variety of food and game booths sponsored by student clubs.

Visitors may also purchase Cal Poly Pomona grown produce and ornamental plants plus a variety of gift items from the Cal Poly Pomona Farm Store. Admission to the Festival is free. Parking is $3 per vehicle and individual activities will have a small fee.

Proceeds from the Pumpkin Festival support student activities and the College's farm laboratory. For more information visit www.csupomona.edu/farmstore or call (909) 869-4906. IER

Lefty's Family Fun Day & 5K

Free, family event focuses on health

Lefty's Family Fun Day & 5K will be held on Saturday, Oct. 1, at Auto Club Speedway in Fontana. This challenge is the premier event promoting healthy lifestyles for kids and their families across the Inland area and is brought to you by Auto Club Speedway and Healthy Communities from San Bernardino County Department of Public Health.

The morning begins with a 5K on the Speedway Track where the NASCAR races are held. Kids and their families can walk, jog, skate, bike, or scooter on the track. It is quite a sight to see the stadium from the vantage point of a race car driver!

The 5K ends at the Speedway Fanzone which is turned into the Family Fun part of the day. This expo is completely geared to kids of all ages providing lots of fun activities such as sport exhibitions, basketball, soccer clinics, Zumba dance, skateboarding, food samples, and so much more.

Lefty's Family Fun Day & 5K provides a fun-filled family-oriented activity at no cost. There is no charge to park or participate, and nothing in the expo is sold. Their goal is to promote a healthy lifestyle and educate families about the great activities available to them in their local area and to make physical activity a part of their life.

Go to www.lefty5k.com to register and download the waiver. If you have questions, call Healthy Communities at (909) 387-4370 or email at healthycommunities@dph.sbcounty.gov. IER

Fashionistas, get ready for the Fashion Event of the Year

Downtown Riverside Celebrates Fashion's Night Out

By Natasha Ferguson

Fashion's Night Out (FNO) is a fashion and shopping extravaganza event that was first launched in New York three years ago and has since expanded to include: Los Angeles, Atlanta, Houston, Milan, Paris, London, Lisbon and now historic downtown Riverside joins the list of participating cities. FNO — collaboration between American Vogue, the Council of Fashion Designers of America, NYC & Company, and the City of New York, and participating cities — is intended to restore consumer confidence, boost the industry's economy and put the "fun" back in shopping.

Downtown Riverside Celebrates FNO takes place Thursday, Sept. 8 and is expected to draw thousands of fashionistas from all over the Inland region to celebrate the art of fashion and enjoy the unique shopping experience of downtown Riverside. An array of activities include specials at local businesses, in-store retail promotions, entertainment, meet and greet of local fashion designers, product sampling, demonstrations, drawings, special guest appearances and more. Pop in and out of downtown boutiques, salons, and spas for exciting specials, beauty makeovers, how-to's and photo ops with models from 4 to 9pm. Main Street Fashion Show, produced by The Art Institute of California-Inland Empire, will take place in the Civic Plaza block on Main between University and Mission Inn showcasing the latest fashion trends from 6-7pm. Also, check out Fashion Alley in the Culver ArtsBlock on Main Street at Ninth and browse vendors with fashion merchandise such as handmade jewelry, artisan items, apparel, shoes and more.

Fashion's Night Out (FNO) is an unprecedented global initiative originally created in 2009 to celebrate fashion, restore consumer confidence, and boost the industry's economy during the recession. On Sept. 8, in response to overwhelming demand, Fashion's Night Out will return to New York City and over 100 cities nationwide to highlight fashion and support retail with exciting events that include designer appearances, celebrity guests, fashion shows and musical performances. For more information visit www.fashionsnightout.com, or join them on Facebook and Twitter (@fnonyc, #FNO).

FNO Downtown Riverside is hosted by Riverside Downtown Partnership in partnership with The Art Institute of California-Inland Empire. For more information contact Natasha Ferguson at (951) 341-6550 or Phyllis Clark at (951) 288-4375. ## Anything Can Happen at the L.A. County Fair

From sharks to deep-fried goodies to exhilarating roller coasters, the L.A. County Fair is the perfect destination to celebrate the end of summer.

The nation's largest county fair, which runs Sept. 3-Oct. 2, features more than 70 carnival rides, top-name entertainment, attractions and exhibits for the entire family. With a wide array of discounts and promotions for admission, there are also plenty of savings.

New this year to thrill guests of all ages is Shark Encounter, featuring live sharks swimming with divers in a 5,000-gallon tank and an exhibit on the fascinating Great White shark.

Our Body: Live Healthy returns after a successful debut last year. Our Body is a museum-quality exhibit that offers guests an amazing look at human anatomy coupled with educational information on the advantage of living healthy. Plastinated human specimens are used to illustrate the various systems within the body.

The ever-popular FairView Farms is where city folk come face-to-face with farm life, including cuddly critters and agriculture exploration.

Mojo's Jungle features our resident Capuchin monkey pal Mojo and many of her exotic animal friends.

The End of Summer Concert Series brings 19 nights of red-hot entertainment to the Fairplex Grandstand. Leading the lineup are Earth, Wind & Fire, Big & Rich and Gretchen Wilson, Styx and teen sensation Miranda Cosgrove. A limited amount of free grandstand seating is available with Fair admission.

Start holiday shopping early at the Shopping Place — the largest marketplace west of the Mississippi. Find unique items and practical ones, too.

What's a fair without food? From deep-fried Kool Aid to the famous maple bacon donut to deep-fried watermelon and everything else that is ooey, gooey, covered-in-chocolate and on-a-stick, the Fair is the place to indulge.

For more information and a list of attractions, exhibits and discounts, visit www.lacountyfair.com. IER

Soboba Golf Classic Tees Off Sept. 19

The Soboba Golf Classic is one of the premier events on the PGA TOUR Nationwide Tour. With a $750,000 purse, it carries the distinction of being the second largest full field purse on the Nationwide Tour.

From Sept. 19 through 25, this world class event will be hosted by the Soboba Band of Luiseño Indians at The Country Club at Soboba Springs.

"Soboba is a caring community that has always reached beyond its own population to serve individuals, families, organizations and businesses throughout the region," Tribal Chairman Scott Cozart said. "With its generous support of programs that stress educational opportunities as well as sports and leisure activities, the tribe is pleased to sponsor this significant event."

In its past two years, the Soboba Golf Classic has been able to give back more than $111,000 to local charities. In addition to its "Tickets Fore Charity" program, several themed days are scheduled to educate the public about the event and its affect on the community. They include a U.S. Armed Forces Day (presented by Visterra Credit Union), Cancer Awareness Day, Family Day and Jersey Day (presented by the San Diego Chargers).

Kids can enjoy the free Junior Golf Clinic on Sept. 20 as well as a Kidz Korner from 10am to 6pm, Sept. 22 through 25, which offers lots of family games, activities and prizes.

The Nationwide Tour, owned and operated by the PGA TOUR, identifies those players who are ready to compete and win on golf's biggest stage.

The Country Club at Soboba Springs is at 1020 Soboba Road in San Jacinto.

For ticket and tournament information call (951) 654-4300 ext. 5200 or visit www.sobobaclassic.net. IER

B. B. King takes the stage in Riverside

“The King of Blues” performs at the Fox Performing Arts Center

Throughout the 1990’s as well as the 1980’s, 1970’s, and 1960’s, there has been only one King of the blues - Riley B. King, affectionately known as B.B. King. Since B.B. started recording in the late 1940’s, he has released over 50 albums many of them considered blues classics, like 1965’s definitive live blues album “Live at The Regal,” and 1976’s collaboration with Bobby “Blue” Bland, “Together For The First Time.”

B.B. King appears on stage in Riverside at the Fox Performing Arts Center on Sept. 28 at 7:30pm, alongside special guest Kenny Wayne Shepherd.

Over the years, B.B. has had two number one R & B hits, 1951’s “Three O’Clock Blues,” and 1952’s “You Upset Me Baby,” 1960’s “Sweet Sixteen, Part I,” and 1966’s “Don’t Answer the Door, Part I.” B.B.’s most popular crossover hit, 1970’s “The Thrill is Gone” went to #15 pop.

'Charlotte's Web' Brings Beloved Classic To The Stage

Riverside Community Players perform Oct. 7-9

"It is not often that someone comes along who is a true friend and a good writer. Charlotte was both." E.B. White wrote these famous lines in his classic children's book Charlotte's Web, and a delightful cast of colorful characters (both human and animal) will bring the charming tale to life at Riverside Community Players for one weekend only, October 7-9.

The story centers on Wilbur, a sweet but lonely pig, who befriends a seemingly ordinary barn spider named Charlotte. However, when Wilbur finds himself in danger, Charlotte proves to be extraordinarily talented, intelligent and caring. Determined to save the young pig, Charlotte begins a campaign using the "miracle" of her web in which she writes "SOME PIG." Throughout her unique campaign, Wilbur comes to understand the true meaning of love and self-sacrifice.

The Children's Literature Association named Charlotte's Web "the best American children's book of the past two hundred years." Capturing the story in a thrilling theatrical presentation, Joseph

A Sneak Peek Behind the Curtain at Center Stage

This fall liven up your nights with fantastic entertainment for the whole family to enjoy! Don't miss out on amazing shows at the beautifully reinvented 1930's era Center Stage Theatre in Downtown Fontana.

Visit Center Stage on the 1st and 3rd Thursday, September through November, for Latin dancing and live music. Featured bands this fall include the Iliana Rose Band, Latin Society, Louie Cruz Beltran and the Susie Hansen Latin Band. Enjoy the Theatre's intimate setting, appetizers and beverages, and quality entertainment as you dance the night away from 7pm-12am.

On September 10th and 11th take a trip down memory lane with the nationally touring production of "Nostalgia." You'll be taken back to that fateful day at Pearl Harbor and travel through the 40's, 50's, and 60's until the first steps are taken on the moon. Nationally touring stand-up comedian Randy Riggle will be your tour guide on a trip filled with songs and laughs in this 90 minute one-man show.

Weekends from September 23rd through October 16th laugh out loud during "Xanadu," a hilarious, roller skating musical adventure for children and adults that demonstrates the importance of following one's dreams despite the limitations others say exist. Enjoy this Broadway show based on the Universal Pictures' cult classic movie of the same title, which starred Olivia Newton-John and Gene Kelly.

Get down with some Motown sound at "Supreme Reflections," a must see tribute

Riverside Community Players Opens Season with 'Moon Over Buffalo'

Riverside Community Players opens its 2011-2012 season on Sept. 9 with a severe case of miscommunication and mistaken identity. Visit the Players' theatre-in-the-round as they present Ken Ludwig's hilarious farce Moon over Buffalo, playing for three weekends, Sept. 9-25.

Embarking on its 87th consecutive season of live theatre in the inland valley, the popular playhouse chose a side-splitting comedy as the season opener to get theatergoers in an upbeat mood. In the madcap comedy tradition of his Leading Ladies and Lend Me a Tenor, Ken Ludwig's Moon over Buffalo is an absolute crowd-pleaser with its fast-paced action and witty dialogue. On Broadway, Carol Burnett received a Tony Award nomination for her role in the production, and subsequent Broadway casts included such notables as Lynn Redgrave and Robert Goulet.

The story centers on two fading thespians, George and Charlotte Hay, who are hoping for one more shot at stardom. At the moment, they are playing Private Lives and Cyrano De Bergerac in repertory in Buffalo, New York.

On the brink of a disastrous split-up caused by George's dalliance with a young ingenue, they receive word that movie mogul, Frank Capra, is en route to Buffalo to catch their matinee. If he likes what he sees, then he might cast them in his movie remake of The Scarlet Pimpernel! Unfortunately for George and Charlotte, everything that could go wrong with the per-

Soboba Powwow Draws National Competitors

The Soboba Band of Luiseño Indians and Soboba Casino will present the 15th annual Inter-Tribal Powwow at its arena near San Jacinto on Sept. 16, 17 and 18.

Prior to the official start of a weekend of dancing, drumming and singing there will be a Social Round Dance and bird singing at the Soboba Sports Complex. The public is invited to the event that starts at 6pm on Sept. 15 and will continue past midnight.

"It's done to promote unity amongst the community, elders and the youth," said Round Dance organizer Glen Begay, of Phoenix. "Back in the old days a round dance would bring family and friends together. They don't dress in regalia – it's come as you are."

Competitors from across the country will take part in the annual powwow that is marked by the Grand Entry of all participants on each day.

Powwow is a traditional phrase for a tribal peace gathering or for a meeting where warring tribes – or tribes and others – could meet to negotiate.

"It brings spiritual blessing to the tribe that sponsors these events," said Begay, who is Dine' (Navajo). "It also creates bonds with other tribes."

Hundreds of dancers are expected to participate.

"We hope our visitors see that we have a very beautiful culture," said Begay.

Northern and Southern drum groups will compete for $30,000 in prize money for the top five. Dancers in all categories are divided by age groups from juniors through golden age with $1,200 going to the top performer in each adult level.

Details and vendor applications are available at www.soboba-nsn.gov.

Axes & Axles: The Art of Building Cars and Guitars

The Wally Parks NHRA Motorsports Museum is getting the popular Axes & Axles: The Art of Building Cars and Guitars exhibit tuned-up and ready for a second unveiling in September. The popular exhibit opened in 2010 and has been a rocking success. Thanks to its popularity, the exhibit will be extended through the end of 2011.

New stars cars, including Metallica's front-man James Hetfield's Slow Burn, guitars and memorabilia, will be added and unveiled on Sept. 3 for the annual Los Angeles County Fair.

The exhibit acknowledges the synergy between guitars (axes) and cars (axles). This exhibit features a vast collection of rare photographs, rock memorabilia and personal cars and guitars from rock icons such as Jeff Beck, Eric Clapton, Billy F Gibbons, Jimmie Vaughan and many more.

One of the main reasons the exhibit has been such a success is in part due to the hands-on component of the exhibit. There is an interactive rock band video game, real Fender guitars that can be picked up and played through amplifiers, and during the Los Angeles County Fair, guitar instructors are teaching kids how to play.

"The response to the new Axes & Axles exhibit has surpassed our imagination. Thousands of visitors of all ages have experienced the exhibit and can't stop talking about it. So, we're extending it and will be tuning it up during the summer for a back-to-school unveiling in September," said Museum Director Tony Thacker. "The tuned-up Axes & Axles exhibit will feature some new cars and guitars so even if you've seen it already, you'll want to return!"

Artists featured in the exhibit include:

- James Hetfield, American guitarist and lead vocalist of heavy-metal band Metallica
- Michael Anthony, former bassist for the rock band Van Halen
- Jeff Beck, legendary English rock guitarist
- Eric Clapton, famed English blues-rock guitarist, singer, songwriter and composer
- Chip Foose, celebrity automotive designer
- Billy F Gibbons, guitarist of ZZ Top
- Kenny Wayne Shepherd, blues/rock guitarist
- Brian Setzer, American guitarist, singer, songwriter, and actor
- Jimmie Vaughan, American blues guitarist and singer
- SO-CAL Speed Shop, leaders in automotive design
- Deon Rexroat of Anberlin

Founded in 1998 and named for the founder of the National Hot Rod Association, the Wally Parks NHRA Motorsports Museum, presented by Automobile Club of Southern California, houses the very roots of hot rodding. Scores of famous vehicles spanning American motorsports history are on display, including winning cars representing 50 years of drag racing, dry lakes and salt-flat racers, oval track challengers and exhibits describing their colorful backgrounds.

The Wally Parks NHRA Motorsports Museum is open Wednesday through Sunday, 10am to 5pm. Current NHRA members are admitted free and Auto Club members enjoy a $2 discount. Admission for non-members is $8 for adults, $6 for seniors 60 and older, $6 for juniors six through 15, and free for children under the age of five. The Museum is also available for special group tours.

The Wally Parks NHRA Motorsports Museum is located at Fairplex Gate 1, 1101 W. McKinley Ave. in Pomona. For further information on special exhibits, museum events or directions, call (909) 622-2133 or visit museum.nhra.com.

Billy Idol Live At Fantasy Springs Resort Casino

A music staple of the 1980s spawned from the punk rock group Generation X, Billy Idol possesses three Grammy Awards and millions of adoring fans. Those fans, 3,500 of them at least, can see Billy Idol shout out his signature Rebel Yell and perform hits from the decades gone by in a live concert at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino on Saturday, Oct. 15, at 8pm. Tickets are $49, $69 and $79 and may be purchased by calling (800) 827-2946, online at FantasySpringsResort.com or in person at the Fantasy Springs Box Office.

Billy Idol emerged as a solo artist in the early 1980s with his eponymous debut album. The first singles, "Dancing With Myself" and a cover of Tommy James and the Shondels' song "Mony Mony," became his breakout hits. His videos for the songs "White Wedding" and "Dancing With Myself" got heavy play on MTV, further helping to cement his status as a superstar solo artist. Idol continued his success with the raw energy found on the albums "Rebel Yell" and "Whiplash Smile." He's released nine other albums, appeared on screen in the films "The Wedding Singer," "The Doors" and others and continues to tour around the world, playing major music festivals and small venues alike.

Carlos Santana And The Santana Band Wrap North American Tour At Fantasy Springs

He's won 10 Grammy Awards and is ranked by Rolling Stone Magazine as one of the top of their "100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time" list. Carlos Santana and the Santana Band descend on Fantasy Springs Resort Casino this fall with their smooth sounds for the final stop on their

Carlos Santana

Sound of Collective Consciousness North American tour on Friday, Sept. 30 at 8pm at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino. Tickets may be purchased in person at the Fantasy Springs Box Office, by calling (800) 827-2946 or online at www.FantasySpringsResort.com.

Carlos Santana and the Santana Band will perform classics from the group's four-decades-long career, and spotlight songs from Santana's latest album, "Guitar Heaven: The Greatest Guitar Classics of All Time" (2010, Arista Records). With its release, Santana joined the Rolling Stones as one of only two music acts in Billboard chart history to score at least one Top Ten album in each decade from the 1960s through the present. With highlights including the first single, "While My Guitar Gently Weeps"—featuring India.Arie and Yo Yo Ma accompanying Santana—Guitar Heaven is Santana's 29th Billboard Top 200-charting release, 12th Top Ten album debut, and third Top 10 debut in the past five years.

Ever since Santana emerged from the San Francisco Bay Area music scene in the late 1960s, the group has sold more than 100 million records and reached more than 100 million fans at concerts worldwide. To date, Santana has won ten Grammy Awards, including a record-tying nine for a single project, 1999's Supernatural (including Album of the Year and Record of the Year for "Smooth"). In 1998, the group was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, whose website notes, "Guitarist Carlos Santana is one of rock's true virtuosos and guiding lights." Among many other honors, Carlos Santana has also been cited by Rolling Stone Magazine as #15 on its list of the "100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time."

Charity Golf Tourney Aims To Get Kids Into Extracurricular Activities

Some children keep their parents running all day every day from school to soccer practice, piano lessons, ballet classes and play dates. Still other children's parents find it difficult to afford all the things that go along with those activities – cleats, shin guards, music books, ballet shoes and more. The Rosie's Kids organization was started in 2010 to help children and their parents be able to fund such activities.

On Monday, Sept. 12, Rosie's Kids and Eagle Falls Golf Course hosts a charity golf tournament in order to raise money for the non-profit cause. Entry is $80 per golfer and includes 18-holes of championship golf, breakfast, lunch, cart with GPS, use of the driving range and practice green, and an ice-filled cooler with water. To sign up or for more information, call (760) 485-4483 or email Rosie Welmas at rdwelmas@aol.com.

Rosie Welmas, founder of Rosie's Kids, says the organization was started because of the need she saw first hand while coaching a group of children's cheerleading squads, and her memory of a third grade teacher who helped Rosie financially to be able to participate in extracurricular activities. "There were many kids who wanted to participate and many of them showed the skills necessary to continue on in the sport. The problem was that, with most kids' activities, it costs a lot of money for uniforms, travel and more. With the recession, fewer parents were able to pay those kinds of expenses," explained Rosie.

The organization helps offset the high cost of supplies needed to participate in extracurricular activities for children in the Coachella Valley, and helps them to become well-rounded individuals.

Eagle Falls Golf Course is part of Fantasy Springs Resort Casino, located just outside of Palm Springs. The par 72 course is 6,715 yards and was voted a best new course by Golfweek magazine. For tee times at Eagle Falls Golf Course, or to make reservations at Fantasy Springs Resort Casino, call (800) 827-2946 or log onto www.FantasySpringsResort.com. Leeza Villagomez of Yoga Den

"The Longest distance you will travel is from your head to your heart"

Yoga is vast and so are styles. If you are looking to become a yoga instructor, the Yoga Den Health Spa in Corona has a program operating in September. You will learn and practice every day "Vinyasa flow" as taught by Shiva Rea, Yin, Iyengar, Ashtanga, Kundalini, Anusara, Gently yoga, Pre-Post natal Yoga, Restorative, and meditation everyday, thoroughly study the seven main chakras as taught by Swami Nithananda Paramahansa, work with Shawoman Andrea Bernstein, learn sacred tribal healing modalities, cleansing retreat, raw food and Ayurveda, to list a few.

Leeza Villagomez, owner of Yoga Den, was introduced to yoga in 1983, when she slowly began her journey. In the mid 80's she began traveling the world as an international model. Wherever she went she made new discoveries and met many different people and practiced with many different teachers. After living in Germany and Greece for three years her agent moved her to South Beach, where she stayed for five years and began studying the course of Miracles, Wayne Dyer, Deepak Chopra and practicing yoga.

She finally moved back to California in 1995 where she began practicing at Yoga Works on Montana Ave. in Brentwood. Here she met Steve Ross, Shiva Rea, Saul David Raye, Sean Corn, Bryan Kest, Maty and Chuck. It was here where she grew up she found who she was.

Leeza had no plans of becoming a yoga teacher but had time to take an intense yoga teacher training course that would change her life. Today, she has completed many trainings and studied with many teachers.

"Yoga changed my life and opened my heart even more than I thought possible and helped me to understand we are all on a journey and it's personal to each and every one of us. Still, we are all in this together, we are brothers and sisters and cohesively we create 'Oneness,'" Leeza said. "Yoga is for all beings everywhere, so is our Holistic Teacher Training."

If you are interested in Yoga Den Teacher Training, email Leeza at leeza@yogadens.com with a letter stating you are ready to add more knowledge to your life's journey. The next journey begins Monday, Sept. 12-18, 24, and 25, 8:30am-7:30pm (times may vary).

For more information about the Yoga Den Health Spa, go online to www.yogadenhealthspa.com or call (951) 279-9642. The Yoga Den Health Spa is located at 1035 Montecito Dr. in Corona. LER

Shop local at Riverside's Downtown Farmers' Market

Find freshness, food and fun every Saturday in Riverside at the Downtown Farmers Market. Visitors can walk along Main Street Riverside between 5th and 6th Streets enjoying the radiant sights and smells of a wide variety of novelty and fresh food. These sensory delights are ignited by an assortment of treats: fresh fruits and vegetables, flowers, hummus, aged Gouda cheese by Winchester Cheese Co., baked bread from Old Towne Baking Co., fish from Smart Fish Co. and many more other specialty food items.

Only eat organic or vegan? The Farmers Market can surely satisfy that too. The market opens bright and early at 8am and is available to shoppers until 1pm. A diverse set of vendors greet market-goers and offer an exclusive chance to explore their product and buy fresh directly from the hands of the farmer. Fresh fish, herbs, even vegetables specific to Asian cuisine, area farmers line the street in Riverside's downtown offering a unique opportunity to discover these refreshing luxuries.

It all happens in downtown Riverside, every Saturday, all year long, and the best news is it's all local. Start your weekend off right and embrace your community's unique invitation to partake in indulging in the rarity of freshness at the Downtown Farmers Market. IER

2011 Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo Rolls Into Pomona Fairplex

300-plus Exhibitors, Amazing Expo-only Deals, Racing Demos, Freestyle Motocross, ATV Test Rides and More

The 2011 Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo powered by General Tire will invade the Pomona Fairplex Saturday, Oct. 8 through Sunday, Oct. 9, with everything off-road including new vehicles, thousands of parts and accessories, ATV test rides, freestyle motocross action and more.

This year's expo showcases all the latest off-road toys, technologies, parts, gear and accessories from more than 300 of the industry's leading manufacturers, dealers and distributors. Off-road manufacturer representatives will be on-site to demonstrate and educate attendees on all the latest vehicles and accessories. In addition to the line-up of trucks, Jeeps, UTVs, ATVs, side-by-sides, dirt bikes, sand rails, rock crawlers, parts and accessories on display, the expo will come to life with exciting entertainment features including:

Lucas Oil Off-Road Racing Exhibition Course – Title sponsor Lucas Oil revs up this year's expo with the high-powered, high-jumping race trucks from the Pro 4 Unlimited and Pro 2 Unlimited classes performing on closed-circuit simultaneously. Professional drivers will demonstrate the capabilities of these amazing 800-plus horsepower V8-powered machines.

Yamaha ATV Test Rides – This year's Expo is home to free Yamaha ATV test rides all weekend on the demo course. This closed-circuit obstacle course will test the endurance and agility of these all-terrain vehicles and give drivers a real-world off-road experience.

Freestyle Motocross Action – Freestyle motocross legends will provide gravity-defying aerial action in special performances throughout the weekend.

Losi Professional RC Racing – Professional drivers will take scale models of real life vehicles through all the turns on a specially built RC racing dirt track. Come check out the action and test your reflexes against pro drivers or just take one for a spin.

The 2011 Lucas Oil Off-Road Expo will take place Saturday, Oct. 8, from 9am to 6pm and Sunday, Oct. 9, from 9am to 5pm at the Pomona Fairplex in Pomona. Tickets are available in advance at www.OffRoadExpo.com for $10 (Adults) and $5 (Children 6-12). Tickets purchased on-site at the gate will be $12 for adults, $5 for children (6-12) and free

Riverside Children's Theatre presents 'Annie'

Lepin' Lizards! Annie is coming to Riverside this fall. Join Riverside Children's Theatre Oct. 14, 15, 21 and 22 as they present the timeless story about the popular comic strip heroine "Little Orphan Annie" at the Ramona High School Theater.

Annie is a spunky Depression-era orphan determined to find her parents, who abandoned her years ago on the doorstep of a New York City orphanage run by the cruel, embittered Miss Hannigan. In adventure after fun-filled adventure, Annie foils Miss Hannigan's evil machinations, befriends President Franklin Delano Roosevelt and finds a new family and home in billionaire Oliver Warbucks, his personal secretary Grace Farrell and a lovable mutt named Sandy. Boasting one of Broadway's most memorable scores, including "It's the Hard-Knock Life," "Easy Street," "N.Y.C." and the ever-optimistic "Tomorrow," Annie is a delightful theatrical experience for the entire family.

Tickets to Annie are $10 in advance at the following ticket outlets: Alin Party Supply, Riverside; Ponies and Pigtales in Canyon Crest/Riverside Plaza Kiosk, Riverside; and Capezio at Tyler, Riverside. They may also be purchased at the door for $12. For more information or online tickets using PayPal, visit RCT at www.riversidechildrenstheatre.org.

For a sneak preview, come see the cast perform some of the songs on the Riverside Plaza Stage on Saturday, Oct. 1, at 8pm.

Riverside Children's Theatre

Riverside Children's Theatre (RCT) is an award-winning and leading children's theatre group in Riverside County. RCT is a performing arts school and a performance troupe, winning awards from the Inland Theatre League, the Riverside Arts Council and the Press-Enterprise. For 50 years, RCT has introduced thousands of children to the magical world of theatre through participation in drama instruction and performance opportunities.

Membership in RCT is open to all students regardless of background, encouraging children of diversity to learn acting and participate in theatre. Each year, over 160 children, from kindergarten through 8th grade, participate in their acting school on Saturdays. The acting school, unique among area performing arts groups, holds classes throughout the year for three hours on Saturday mornings. These classes instruct students on music, dance, and theatre arts focusing on presentation and delivery. In addition, great attention is devoted to helping children build their self-esteem, confidence, and public speaking skills, skills that will enhance their adult lives wherever their career paths take them.

Children who are students of the school may audition for the two musical productions held in the fall and spring each year. Productions have included: Disney's Beauty and the Beast, Willy Wonka, Snow White, and The Wizard of Oz. Full musicals, replete with a live orchestra, costumes, and make-up, provide children with the feeling of being an integral part of the production. Rehearsals last for two months and culminate in six performances to paying audiences.

In addition to paid performances, RCT performs at no cost to the deaf community, group home residents, senior assisted living homes and local students from low-income schools on a predetermined night during the performance run. IER formance does go wrong, including hilarious confusion about which play they are actually performing. Added into the comedic mix is a daughter who wants to escape the theatrical life, a smitten admirer, a fiance who shows up unexpectedly, a deaf old stage manager who hates George with a passion, and a theatrical agent who hopes to run away with Charlotte. Absurd situations and wacky misunderstandings abound in this raucous comedy.

Director Lynne Ennis of Riverside brings a wealth of experience to the production. Not only is she an accomplished director and actress with numerous Inland Theatre League Awards to her credit, but she also has an intimate knowledge of this show, having portrayed the leading lady, Charlotte Hay, in a highly successful Off-Broadway Play Series production of Moon over Buffalo under the direction of David Wayne Nelson. To help realize her vision of the show, Riverside Community Players has put together a top-notch production team. Long-time RCP mainstay Larry Bates of Riverside serves as Technical Director, coordinating the set, sound and lights. Chester Hess Award winners Ted and Rory Dyer and Sandra and Stacey Claflin, all from Riverside, are in charge of costumes and props, respectively. Stacey Claflin also serves as the Assistant to the Director.

The talented cast hails from all over the Inland Empire and is led by local favorites Deborah McFatter, of Redlands, and Douglas Buckhout, of Riverside, as Charlotte and George Hay. Causing the couple all sorts of consternation are Sally Norton of Redlands as the deaf stage manager Ethel, Laura Harper of Redlands as their daughter Rosalind, Paul Ledesma of Riverside as Rosalind's fiance Howard, Elizabeth Casey of Corona as Eileen, the young ingenue with a secret, Michael Shane Eastman of Colton as Paul, Rosalind's amorous acting partner, and Chris MarkerMorse of Riverside as Richard, the agent with the ulterior motive.

Lynne Ennis directs Moon Over Buffalo

Performances of Moon over Buffalo are Sept. 9, 10, 15, 16, 17, 23, and 24 at 8pm and Sept. 11, 18, 24 and 25 at 2pm. Tickets are $15, and the Players' intimate theatre-in-the-round setting affords every patron an up-close-and-personal look at the wacky action.

For a great bargain, look into getting a season ticket for the Riverside Community Players. Their Main Series consists of six productions – comedy, drama, mystery and a musical – all six shows for the price of $69, only $11.50 per show. Senior Citizens, age 62 and above, can get a season pass for $60. If you prefer less of a commitment, then a three-show Sampler Season Ticket is also available for $40.

Riverside Community Players received seventeen Inland Theatre League Awards for Excellence in 2010 and has been providing quality theatre at an affordable price for 87 years. It is one of the oldest continuously active theatre groups in the United States and a piece of Riverside's cultural history.

The theatre is located at 4026 Fourteenth Street in Riverside between Magnolia and Brockton Avenues. There is no late seating, and children under the age of five are not admitted. Visit www.riversidecommunityplayers.org for information on upcoming events. For ticket reservations, call the box office at (951) 686-4030. IER

Robinette has created a play that will enchant audiences of all ages. The production is directed by Carol Damgen, a familiar face to RCP audiences, having previously appeared in the RCP Family Series production of A Christmas Carol. Ms. Damgen has gathered a lively group of local actors to portray the multiple roles: Wilbur, the irresistible young pig who desperately wants to avoid the butcher; Fern, a girl who understands what animals say to each other; Templeton, the gluttonous rat who can occasionally be talked into a good deed; the Zuckerman family; the Arables; a couple of nosy geese, and, most of all, the extraordinary spider, Charlotte.

Performances of Charlotte's Web will be Oct. 7 and 8 at 7pm and Oct. 8 and 9 at 2pm. Tickets are only $9, and the Players' intimate theatre-in-the-round setting affords every patron an up-close-and-personal look at the intriguing action. For a great bargain, look into getting a season ticket for the Family Series. For three shows, the price is a mere $21.

The next shows in Riverside Community Players' 2011-12 Family Series:

A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens, and adapted by Kathryn Gage, playing Dec. 9-11. This is a traditional version about the transformation of the bitter and miserly Ebenezer Scrooge. On Christmas Eve, the ghost of Jacob Marley comes to Scrooge to foretell of the visit of three spirits who are Scrooge's only hope of seeing the error of his ways. Resistant at first, Scrooge journeys through events of his life with each of the spirits and awakens in the morning a man who has learned how to keep Christmas in his heart all year. A story for any time and all ages, it is reputed to be Dickens' own favorite.

The Garden of Rikki Tikki Tavi by Rudyard Kipling, and adapted by Y York, playing Feb. 17-19. When the pristine garden of the diva tailor bird Darzee becomes inhabited by the young, rambunctious mongoose, Rikki Tikki Tavi, she becomes incensed. With her muskrat friend Chuchu, Darzee pulls out all the stops to devise ways to run off the pesky mongoose. However, when they see the strange effect that Rikki Tikki Tavi has on Nag, the dangerously cunning cobra, the friends reconsider. This play is a delightfully fun reminder about sharing and cooperation.

The theatre is located at 4026 Fourteenth Street in Riverside between Magnolia and Brockton Avenues. There is no late seating, and children under the age of five are not admitted. Show titles are subject to availability. Visit www.riversidecommunityplayers.org for information on upcoming events.
